The Editor's Desk

Greetings From Pandemic Lockdown.

This is hardly the issue I had expected to assemble as the month began. The cancellation of the WASCA Festival was a big disappointment. This was followed rapidly by the cancellation of the Jackson pre-convention and of this year's convention in Spokane. The latter was particularly ill fated starting with the fact that nobody bid to hold it. The NEC then decided to run it themselves, but the registered attendance was down.

This leads to a plea to readers. Putting on these festivals and conventions costs significant up front money. In the case of WASCA, we both upfront costs and the board chose to fully honor the contracts ($14,400) with the staff most of whom are full time callers and cuers. Personally I suspect that this may be the last income several of them have for a while. While WASCA and the Spokane convention will refund registration fees, I strongly recommend that you tell them to consider those fees a donation. In the case of WASCA, I also encourage those of us who are retired and have a relatively secure income, make a donation towards the cost of paying the staff in full. Realizing that I will not have any expenses for either theatre or dances for the foreseeable future, I have chosen to make such a donation

The festival cancellation has resulted in a couple of additions to CnC. There were several advertisements in the program book. Depending on the content they will appear in CnC. First those which specifically advertise a dancing related event will appear in "Special Dance Flyers" until the event date has passed. Second those which advertize other things will appear in a "Program Book Advertisements" in the 61st Festival section for the next two issues. At this time the board has not established policy / rates for paid ads. Between the free "Club Dance Schedules" and Special Dance Flyers" sections there really has not been any demand for ads.

One last sad request - please send me the names and if possible pictures & obituary links for any dancer related deaths from COVID-19. I have no other way of learning about them so I can publish them in Calls 'N' Cues.

See you on the other side

From the WASCA President's Cor- ner

*CT and Margaret Montgomery
(WASCA Presidents 2019-2020)*

Well – it is certainly a different message than we thought that we would be writing at this time. The timing of the virus outbreak meant that we had to cancel the WASCA Festival with very little advance notice. Everyone came together to ensure that this was done as smoothly as possible. We send our personal thanks to the WASCA Board and Festival Directors and Committee who have worked so hard over the past few weeks to make tough decisions and pass along information. That was in addition to the work that they had done throughout the last year to prepare for a great Festival. The reaction of the calling staff and dancers has been very supportive. Our thanks to everyone involved – including the staff and management of the Hilton Hotel.

The theme dances leading up to this point have been wonderful and we were so sorry not to be able to top them off with a Festival. Many events have been cancelled in this area and across the country and it may be quite a few weeks (or even months) before life returns to normal and we can resume our favorite activities. We may all need to have refresher courses at that time to get back to our normal standard of dancing!

It seems that the very things that we enjoy about this activity are the things that make it so easy for the virus to spread. One of the first things that we were taught was that holding or touching hands was a good thing. It was also good to try to dance with different people for each square dance tip. These things ensured that any germs were spread evenly to everyone and could then be carried away to another dance at another location. Just imagine how quickly the virus could be spread by just one person. It was certainly unavoidable that all these events had to be cancelled or postponed. As one of the staff callers remarked about the WASCA Festival we can “look forward to next year where it will be bigger and better than it has ever been”.

Meanwhile we can get to all the jobs that have been on hold for a long time. Cleaning the house and doing taxes doesn't sound like much fun, so maybe we will just get outside and enjoy the sunshine and Spring flowers that are now blooming. Plenty of chances to catch up with friends and family thanks to modern technology.

We hope that everyone stays healthy and that we will be able to dance with you again soon.

NCASDLA President's Message

Steve Lucius NCASDLA President

Instead of enjoying the 2020 WASCA Festival this weekend, we are all home practicing “Social Distancing”. I’m sure everyone is disappointed with the first (and only) cancelling of a WASCA Spring Festival in 61 years. But on the other hand, it’s nice to see the country coming together towards a common goal, e.g. the medical war on COVID-19.

This year NCASDLA had the pleasure of experiencing a large increase in the number of local Callers and Cuers who became members of, or who re-joined as past members, our National Capital Area Square Dance Leader’s Association. Many of these leaders are experienced pros, some of them are also full-time callers.

Not having the WASCA Festival was a particular disappointment for NCASDLA because we had planned a “special event” this year, including two separate halls on Friday morning at 9 AM and two halls on Saturday evening at 5 PM. Instead of our past Mainstream level hours, we planned on simultaneous Plus and Advance halls. Our logic was that most of the festival attendees danced the Plus program or higher. Our new plan would have hopefully encouraged more dancers to come out and enjoy the local NCASDLA callers. It also gave us the opportunity to feature more callers at the festival. Alas, this year festival it was not to be. However, we will try again in 2021 at the 62nd WASCA “Dancing Through the Cherry Blossoms” Spring Festival.

For a variety of reasons, we have decided to cancel our annual June Jamboree this summer. Instead we are focusing on a larger event in June of 2021. NCASDLA is discussing doing the first “NCASDLA Summer Festival” on June 13, 2021 (backup date June 6th). We hope to provide three halls for three hours (2 – 5 PM); an alternating Mainstream/Plus hall, an alternating Advance/Challenge hall and a dedicated Rounds hall. This will be a free festival for you, our favorite dancers. The location for this event is still “to be determined”. Please save us a spot on your long-range calendar!

I am very excited for the future of our NCASDLA organization and hope that you will come out and enjoy our future events. Please visit our webpage at: www.NCASDLA.org I invite you to send your thoughts and comments to our Vice President, Dick Otis, at dick.otis.com.

Please come on out and enjoy our talented group of Callers.

Greetings, WASCA dancers from a distance -- no touching, no hugs, but best wishes for all. We, like all of the WASCA area dancers, sorely missed the 2020 WASCA Festival since we were looking forward to "Getting Your Kicks on Route 66". But, given the coronavirus medical emergency and the health risks to our dancers, many of whom, like Berni and me, are among that segment of the population most vulnerable to the virus, the Festival had to be postponed.

Until we can overcome this coronavirus emergency and see that the growth rate for the spread of the virus has slowed substantially, there will be little opportunity to dance with all our dancing friends. We will get through this as a country and there will be a brighter tomorrow. Until then, stay well, be cautious, and we will look forward to joyously dancing with everyone once Maryland and Virginia schools are re-opened and it is safe and prudent to join everyone on the dance floor.

With Maryland schools closed through April 24 at the moment, and Virginia schools closed for the rest of the academic year [a decision that we hope is premature], it is likely that we will not return to dancing before May, at best. We will miss everyone, but this extended absence will make it even better when we can rejoin everyone on the dance floor.

Stay in touch with your dancing friends electronically or telephonically. We will look forward to joining all of you on the dance floor as soon as prudent and feasible to do so.

61st WASCA Spring Festival “Get Your Kicks on Route 66”

Rock ‘n’ Roll is here to stay!!!!

*by Directors:
Bobbi & Jeff Fuhr
Linda Peterson & Steve Toth*

Well I am sitting here at my office on St. Patrick’s Day and I should be in the car headed for the 61st “Get Your Kick’s On Route 66” Festival. We made it all of the way to the end in California and we were so ready to have a wonderful time and watch all of our plans come together, but it is much more important that all of our dancers stay healthy and ready to dance another day.

Bobbi, Jeff, Steve and I talked and decided since

1) we have all of the decorations and all of our party ideas and plans and

2) Ginny, Renee & Mike don’t have an assistant director yet that we will circle right back from “the end – California” and come back for the “63rd Get Your Kick’s On Route 66”. After all we already have our poodle skirts ready. Plus, we will get to visit all of the clubs again for the theme dances.

The hotel was very nice to us when we explained how nervous we were for our dancers and their staff. None of us knew what the government was going to do and it seems like in 4 short days the virus was getting closer and closer. Ed Cragg said there was a patient in the hospital a half a block away. Just way too close. The Hilton told us that they really valued our festival and would help us in whatever we needed. We made the tough decision to cancel the festival – our lives are much to valuable. We need to live to dance another day. As it turns out it was a really good decision and we all just need to sit and wait this out.

So the plans are that for March, 2022 we will not only be doing what we had planned for this year, but with the four of us as Festival Directors who knows what we will add in besides root beer floats, swing dancers and a sock hop with a real “king” and “queen”. You will have to wait and see. Get ready to be real “Cool”.

62nd WASCA Spring Festival “WASCA’s Dancing Through the Cherry Blossoms.”

by directors
Ginny Fromel and Rene & Mike Hermann

We are really disappointed that we didn't get a chance to "Get Our Kicks on Route 66," but our need to keep everyone healthy had to take precedence. By the time you see this article, it will be spring, and we will be half-way through this year's National Cherry Blossom Festival. Although most of the festival events have been cancelled, I encourage all of you to do what you can to see the beautiful cherry blossoms if it means just turning on the television and watching the news.

We know that this year's festival committee did a lot of work to make the festival a special event, and we want to thank them for everything they did. With the cancellation of this year's festival and financial loss, WASCA will be in need of all "our" support.

We hope that you will enjoy our theme for 2021, and we will have to keep our eyes open for any appropriate music. Of course, we already have some of our festival dresses made, but there is a lot of beautiful cherry blossom material out there for those that want to dress up for the theme for our March 18 – 20, 2021, "Dancing Through the Cherry Blossoms" festival.

We already have eight clubs signed up for theme dances, so please contact our theme dance coordinator, Janet Kelley, at FestivalThemeDance@WAS-CAClubs.com and set up your theme dance date. Since our deadline for the festival hotel rates is February 2nd, we would advise you to have your theme dance prior to that date. We have been in contact with the hotel to make changes and improvements and hope to make this the best festival yet. We will tell you more about the changes in the months to come.

I would like to take some time to tell you about the rest of our very talented committee members; and although most of our committee has continued on from last year, we also have five new members. Our registrars are Nancy and Tom Stafford and our housing chairmen are Stephanie and Joe Corson, whose contact information can be found on our registration flyers. John and Charlotte Richardson have already designed our beautiful flyers and the logo for our shirts and coasters. Darrella and Tom Deubel are taking care of our advertising, and Trish and Dick Otis are doing the Program Book, pocket programs, the inside of our flyers, flyer printing, and festival photography. Richard and Judy Hack will be handling dancer hospitality, computers, and making our festival badges. Paula and Pete Ropshaw will be collecting for those participating in the Booster Clubs, and Peggy Portner is our infamous columnist for the Calls & Cues inputs. We will have Nick and Chris Capozio working on our Opening Ceremonies, and we're getting excited about how to present the Cherry Blossom Festival to all of you. Linda and Steve Toth have volunteered to help with our ideas for the Friday night Entertainment, and we will be asking for a lot of club participation as well. Ed Cragg will be overseeing Facilities Services, and he will have his hands full. Bruce Mitchell will be handling the sound again this year, and Cecile and Tim Noyes will be taking care of vendors. So, if you know of anyone interested in being a vendor next year, please give their information to Cecile and Tim. Bobbi and Jeff Fuhr will be welcoming our Callers and Cuers and taking care of the Callers & Cuers Lounge with the help of Connie and Lenny Houle. They will also be busy promoting our festival baskets and making the Directors' Afterparty a real success. Sharon Cockram is the new chairperson for the Solo Program, and she's really excited about it. Judy Mitchell and Shannon Simmons are continuing to work with our Youth Program and keep them excited about dancing. Our Square-Dancing Chairperson is Mike Farris for the 12th year, and our Square Dance Invitational Chairpersons are Robert Abdinoor and Dan Grimes. Our Round Dance Program chairpersons are Daryl, John and Evan Davis, and our Round Dance Invitational Chairpersons are Amy and Ken Shotting. Donna and Bob Klaiss will be making our festival Barbie dolls, and Ann Wass will be showing us some fantastic ideas during the sewing instruction time. Decorations are being coordinated by Betty and Lou Mastrobattista, and clubs are being asked to help decoration the dance halls. We already have volunteers to decorate four halls, but we have four more that we need volunteers to handle. If interested, please contact Betty and Lou at 301-946-8753. Jan and Alex Dommerich will be in charge of the banners again this year, and we really enjoy seeing all the club banners hanging around the Plaza Ballroom Foyer. Last but not least, Gene Lehr is our new Volunteers Chairperson and will be asking for your help in manning the tables at the festival.

SO, we need to look to the future festival, and don't wait – we should be able to get decorations this year after the Cherry Blossom festival when and if things are cheap and need to be sold. We are also planning to do some traveling to some other festivals and hope to see you on the road. We will be attending the VASARDA Convention at Virginia Beach, VA, in May; the National Convention in Spokane, WA, in June; the MDSDF festival in Gettysburg, PA in July, and the 50th Single Square Dancer's USA (SSDUSA) Dance-A-Rama in Newark, OH in September. However, if you plan on going to any other festivals and would be willing and able to take a small tri-fold and some flyers with you, please let us know.

Hope to see you on the dance floor!

Dancing through the Cherry Blossoms

Arigato Japan, for the Sakura

Farewell to the March non-events: the cherry blossoms and the WASCA Festival, and welcome to a new WASCA theme: “Dancing through the Cherry Blossoms”. Let’s begin with some flowery (ouch) prose about those beautiful flowering trees that surround the D. C. Tidal Basin, donated to celebrate Japanese-American friendship.

Cherry blossoms belong to the genus Prunus; the most familiar species is Prunus serrulata or sakura. Although all species produce fruit, most is unpalatable; only the Prunus avium and Prunus cerasus produce edible berries. The trees grow in the temperate zone of the Northern Hemisphere: Japan, Korea, Taiwan, mainland China, Nepal, Myanmar, Thailand, India, Afghanistan, Iran and western Siberia.

In Japan, symbols of the blossoms are found in art, manga, anime and film. Japanese poetry characterizes slain soldiers as fallen cherry blossoms. Patterns of the flowers are found on kitchenware, clothes (especially kimonos), stationery and... Irezumi, the traditional art of Japanese tattoos. Irezumi often combines the flowers with traditional symbols like fish, koi, dragons or tigers.

In 1930, Imperial Japanese Army officers named their secret club The Cherry Blossom Society, a contradictory choice for a group hoping to create a military, totalitarian government. Prior to and during World War II, Japanese were exhorted to become warriors, ready to scatter like cherry blossoms. Japanese pilots painted the flower images on their planes before suicide missions, to remind men of an intense but ephemeral life. The first kamikaze unit had a sub-group named the Yamazakura, or wild cherry blossom (emphasis on the wild?). Even commandants urged their troops forward so they could “bloom as flowers of death”. Eventually, the falling petals came to represent the sacrifice of youth for the Emperor.

Hanami, the Japanese custom of drinking tea under a blooming sakura, originated in the Nara period (710-794); the words hanami and sakura eventually became synonymous, in tune with the Buddhist ideal of accepting one’s destiny. The blossoms’ ephemeral nature and fragile, transient blooms are a metaphor for mortality and the fleeting beauty of life itself. Originally restricted to the royal family, then extended to the samurai class, hanami is practiced widely as people enjoy feasts and sake under the flowering trees. The Japanese Meteorological Society tracks the sakura zensen (cherry blossom front) as it brings warmer weather, starting in Okinawa, moving towards Kyoto and Tokyo in late March or early April. Families and friends watch the forecasts carefully and crowds gather in parks, shrines and temples for flower-viewing parties. Hanami festivals celebrate the trees’ beauty and provide chances to relax and enjoy nature.

Most Japanese schools and public buildings have at least one tree in their yard; since both the school and fiscal year begin in April, the first day of work and school coincides with cherry blossom season. The Japan Cherry Blossom Assn. lists at least one of the Top 100 Cherry Blossom Spots in every prefecture.

32nd Virginia State Convention

Paul and I hope this finds all of you staying healthy and taking good care of yourselves. I think we're going through square dance withdrawal as we haven't been able to dance in weeks because of the new rules for gatherings. We just want you to know that at the present time, we are planning to proceed with the Virginia State Convention on May 14th. We are monitoring the situation daily regarding the coronavirus. We know that many large conventions and dances have been canceled or postponed. We know Governor Northam put a ban on gatherings of 10 people or more in Virginia and that the order will remain in place until 11:59 p.m. on April 23.

We believe, at this time, that it is still premature for us to begin making any decisions for cancellation of the Virginia State Convention. Our main concern is for the health and safety of our dancers, vendors, and our callers and cuers and prompters. The VASARDA Board, VASCA and convention committee members are committed to giving you information concerning the state convention as soon as it is available.

We currently have 174 registrations and 298 room nights. They are still coming in and folks are still reserving their rooms. If you have sent your registration or made a reservation, Please Do Not Cancel it yet. We are all hoping and praying that we'll be able to have the convention in VA Beach at the Founder's Inn. If you haven't made your reservation yet with the Founder's Inn, give them a call at 757-366-5700. The deadline for our special rate is April 21st. The sooner you call, the better, so you can have your choice of rooms.

We're pleased to remind you that we'll have some special guest callers this year. Jerry Biggerstaff, Monk Moore, Greg Jones and Ed Paust will be on staff this year along with all our wonderful Virginia callers, cuers and prompters who volunteer their time to make sure we all have fun. I'm sure by the time our convention gets here, we'll all be ready for the dance floor.

Last but not least, we have a great Wednesday excursion planned right before the start of the convention for everyone who would like to join us. We'll be taking a lunch cruise on the Spirit of Norfolk. It's only 10 minutes from the hotel, parking is pretty cheap and there is a lot to see and do in the area. It's going to be a great day. The flyer is attached. We even take credit cards now for your convenience.

We'd like to thank everyone for their patience and understanding as we all get through these unpredictable and trying times. So, practice your Half Sashay the Hawaiian Way and we'll see you on the dance floor.....hopefully soon!

COME HELP Single Square Dancers USA CELEBRATE OUR 50TH AND FINAL DANCE-A-RAMA FESTIVAL!

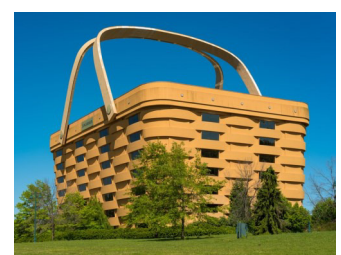

Single Square Dancers USA (SSDUSA) will be celebrating our 50th and final Dance-A-Rama (DAR) festival on Labor Day weekend (Sept 4 - 6, 2020) at the Cherry Valley Hotel, 2299 Cherry Valley Road SE, Newark, OH, just 30 miles from Columbus, OH. We have an outstanding line-up of square dance callers and cuers. Jack Pladdys (OH), Tim Tyl (TX), Tom Davis (OH) and Travis Cook (KY) have agreed to call for us. Phyllis Burdette (OH) and Bonnie Lawrence (IN) will be our cuers, and Bonnie will also teach and lead line dances. Jack and Tom will be the callers and Phyllis and Bonnie will be cueing rounds at our Trail In dance on September 3rd. We will be programming for squares from Mainstream through A2 and for rounds from Phase II through V or VI. Our dance halls are all on the main floor and close to each other, and none of the dancing will be on carpet.

It would be worth enjoying a vacation at this hotel even if we were not attending a great square and round dance festival. The Cherry Valley Hotel is a beautiful facility surrounded by its own botanical garden. All of its redesigned, modern guest rooms have either one or two king sized beds, a pull-out sleeper sofa, a mini-refrigerator, a Keurig coffee maker, and either a patio or balcony. Complimentary wireless high-speed internet is available in all guest rooms. Parking is free for overnight guests. A variety of food is available at the hotel's restaurants, coffee shop, bars and grab-n-go area, or if you prefer, there are numerous other restaurants a short drive away.

We are offering two tours: 1) The Wilds Safari Tour – 8:30 am to 2:30 pm, Thursday, Sept 3 ($75) We will travel by motor coach to The Wilds, a unique, safari park and conservation center in Cumberland Ohio, where we will board an Open-Air Safari vehicle reserved for our group. A knowledgeable guide will take us through The Wilds' open-range animal areas, where we'll see rhinos, giraffes and many other rare and endangered animals roaming in large, natural settings. Lunch at The Wilds is included. 2) Mystery Dangle Dance Tour – 8:30 am to 12:30 pm, Sunday, Sept 6 ($40) Tour includes motor coach transportation and dancing at mystery locations.

We are pleased to be getting a special room rate (not including tax) of $109 per night for one or two people, $124 for three people, and $139 for four people. We hope you will stay at our host hotel. It is much more relaxing and FUN to be close to where the dancing takes place. Be sure to mark your calendars now and make plans to join us to celebrate our Golden Anniversary. Our registration form/flyer can be downloaded from the SSDUSA website at dar2020.ssdusa.com. We need your help to spread the word that we have a great festival planned and that ALL SQUARE AND ROUND DANCERS are welcome at our 50th Dance-A Rama!

EAST MEETS WEST

By Steve Kopman

USDA NEWS - Volume XXXI, Issue 1 - Jan — Mar, 2020

Reprinted by permission

Sometimes, when you have high expectations for an event, they don't pan out. The East Meets West weekend was every bit as exciting and thrilling as I had anticipated.

First some background. I've had the pleasure of calling in Japan a half dozen times in the last 10 years. It is, without question, my favorite country to work in. And if you ask any caller that's had the privilege of calling in Japan they will likely tell you the same thing.

It starts with culture and history. For me, it's also sentimental. My dad (Lee) was one of the first American callers to be invited to call in Japan. One of his most popular calls came as a result of his one visit to Asia. He wanted to write a special call dedicated to them and thus Ah So was created. If you're not familiar with the call it's fixed on the C1 list.

The most amazing part of calling in Japan is how they make the American callers feel. No question the "rockstar" status permeates the room. After each tip there is thunderous applause for the caller. Yes, I wrote EACH | TIP. Nowhere on the planet have I felt so appreciated every moment on stage. They can dance every position for every call with ease. The challenge is knowing almost none of the dancers (and callers for that matter) speak English. But square dancing is a universal language. Do Ci Do here is do ci do there. When I add a new call or concept I have an interpreter (Martha) who explains the idea to the crowd in Japanese. One funny thing that comes to mind: I once called swing thru DOUBLE and no one moved. No think about this: Here are dancers that can do a Left Spin Chain & Exchange the Gears from any position but they can't swing thru twice. But that was because Double means nothing to people who don't speak English. Once it was explained to them what double meant they were flawless in their execution.

So now to East Meets West: Gary Shoemake & Ken Bower call a Senior Games competition every year in Utah. A number of Japanese dancers were coming over and thought it would be exciting to visit my town of Knoxville. Well, on the map UT to TN doesn't seem that far.

So Gary and I planned a mini-weekend after the Sr. game competition in Knoxville, TN. But to make it special for the dancers in the U.S. we included three Japanese callers on the program. Two of the three callers spoke little or no English. I wondered if that would pose a problem to the Americans... It did not. The callers from Japan: QP Hara, Max Ringe, Rascal Araki were wonderfully articulate. Well, except when they told everyone to weave the ring and "Put your hands in the air and CRAP to the beat". I still laugh when I think about that. These callers could sing, entertain and choreograph like the best callers in America. And imagine what it must be like to call a square dance without being able to help the dancers because you don't speak English. And don't forget they dance all position everything in Japan so knowing what's normal in the U.S. can be a challenge.

And what made it even more special was there were about 12 Japanese dancers that came too. So the two halls (Plus and Advanced) were sprinkled with great dancers near and far. You could see the smiles on the Americans faces when the Japanese dancers would join the squares. They knew it was going to be a successful tip.

And now for the spontaneity of the calling experience: Remember that Gary & I have never worked together with the three callers from Japan (2 of whom speak little or no English). Did it matter? Not one bit. The universal language of square dancing made the experience wonderful. We were able to harmonize on singing calls as if it were a normal monthly gathering. There's nothing quite like the feeling of three part harmony materializing with no preparation whatsoever.

This was a once in a lifetime event and one not likely to be repeated because of the distance of the two countries but one all who attended will remember the rest of their lives.

I Miss Square Dancing

By Paula Ropshaw, Aqua Squares

I always thought I would square dance until I couldn't walk. And then I'd be inviting a local club to do a demo in whatever nursing home I was in. I don't dance as many tips each dance as I use to. But we love to dance. But now our wonderful pastime has been taken from us for a while, and I can't believe how much I miss it.

How devastating to have to cancel our wonderful festival. I miss catching up with folks I only see once or twice a year. I miss cruising the vendors, maybe buying something new, but definitely getting the annual festival dangle to add to the ridiculous amount of dangles I have. If I were a scout I would be an Eagle scout, for sure. I miss the wonderful callers I only dance to once a year. I miss dressing up in those wonderfully frilly, girly outfits. I love crinolines. I have always loved the square dance clothes.

I remember many Friday nights, after a long, hard work week, I dreaded rushing through dinner and driving 45 minutes through rain, snow, cold or heat to get to the dance. But once I was there I always had a great time. It was great to sit and chat with friends every Friday night. I would leave each dance glad I came and a happier person. How can you not be happy dancing, laughing, talking to friends (and with our club eating good food). I know that I will appreciate square dancing and everything that goes with it when we are back on the dance floor.

We have struggled to get a class together, but this year we have a wonderful class of folks, who seem to enjoy dancing as much as we do. It was so rewarding to watch them learn. The confusion on their faces eventually turns to smiles as they finally get the call. Our club makes sure they are having fun as well as learning something new. It is wonderful to make new friends, especially ones who enjoy the same things you do. You automatically have something in common with these strangers. Some of the greatest friends I have come from the square dancing community.

So when we are all well again and it is safe to gather, when we can once again yellow rock, I will really appreciate our club, our class, our callers.

I miss square dancing.

CHOREO CORNER

with Dick Otis

Is the caller talking to me?

In order to give directions (i.e. a call) to a dancer or dancers, a caller must be able to identify exactly to whom he/she is talking to, and the dancers need to recognize they are the dancers the caller is addressing. While on some levels this seems pretty basic, at other times it can be very confusing.

Ultimately, what we are discussing here is the common "square dance language" that has developed between a caller and the dancers; Terminology that must be instantly understood, processed, and executed with apparently little effort to be successful.

When you first learn to square dance, one of the first things the caller does is to describe how he/she will address, or "name" the dancers. The very first thing to learn is how to identify a normal couple e.g., the boy on the left and the girl on the right, looking the same direction. There are lots of examples of couples, but only one definition is a "normal couple". If the boy is on the right and the girl is on the left then you are still a couple, but you are not a "normal" couple. In this case a caller would say the boy/girl couple is "half-sashayed". Of course, you could also be a couple of girls or a couple of boys.

Next you learn whether you are a "Head" couple (facing towards or away from the caller) or a "Side" couple (standing perpendicular to the caller); and then you learn your couple number, e.g. couple #1, #2, #3, #4. These are the basics and not new to anyone who has been square dancing for any length of time.

Right after you learn who your Partner is, you learn where your Corner is located. You also learn you have an Original Partner and Original Corner. Later in a dance sequence, you also learn you have a working Partner and a working Corner.

Another easy way to address dancers is Boys or Girls. The Boys are those dancers who initially squared up as the left-side dancers of each couple.

The Girls are those dancers who initially squared up as the right-side dancers of each couple. In the USA (but not so much overseas) the terms Men, Gents, Gentlemen, and Guys are synonymous with Boys. The terms Women, Ladies, and Gals are synonymous with Girls. However, no matter the actual gender of a dancer, those who initially squared up on the left-side of each couple will play the role of Boys; right-side dancers will play the role of Girls.

Callers often refer to the name of a formation such as a right-hand wave. In a right-hand wave, dancers are holding their working partner with a right hand. In a right-hand two-faced line, the Couples are holding right hands.

Then things start to get more complex - even at the Basic Program level - for both for the caller and the dancers. Why? Because often we have ladies who start dancing from the boy's position (and vice versa, but not as often). This can be confusing for the caller because often we are looking at the squares and want to give a command just to the boys (or just to the girls). If someone is dancing in the opposite gender's role it requires more attention and thought. It is confusing for the dancers as well, especially for those dancers who like to switch roles during a dance, because several calls are gender specific (Slide Thru, Star Thru, Courtesy Turn etc.).

The next way of addressing dancers is by the formation they are in, specifically "Centers" and "Ends". While these positions are fairly clear in a line formation, callers often have trouble enunciating and dancers have trouble hearing, the call "Ends" do something. There are ways of clarifying such as Centers do something and the "Others" i.e. the dancers who are not Centers, do something.

Lastly, in the Basic/Mainstream program we introduce the terms "Leaders" and "Trailers". In any box-type formation (e.g., box circulate, tandem couples), those facing out of the box are Leaders and those facing into the box are Trailers. By definition, a box-type formation refers to only 4 dancers in the square.

An understanding of Leaders and Trailers is important, as they are used to define calls (e.g., Cloverleaf) and teach calls (e.g., Zoom). Also, these terms are used by some callers during a dance (e.g., Leaders Trade).

At Mainstream the use of Leaders and Trailers is usually restricted to tandem couples or tandem dancers. At other levels, the positions for Leaders and Trailers are often difficult to see.

There is a gap in the Mainstream Program because the General section on "Ways Of Naming Dancers" is strangely silent on the call 3/4 Tag the Line, and the newest Mainstream call, 1/4 Tag the Line. While not intuitively obvious, in both these formations, the dancers in the center ocean wave are the Centers of the formation. Although the wave in the center of the tag formation has a center 2 and an end 2 dancers, the entire wave is the center of the formation. The center two are also called the "Very Centers", a term introduced at the Advance Program level. The fact these dancers are Centers can be confusing with Plus Program calls like Acey Deucey, where the Centers have to trade. The tendency is for the two dancers in the center of the 1/4 or 3/4 Tag formation (the Very Centers) to think they are the only centers and thus try to trade with the wrong person.

While the Mainstream Program has a discussion in the General section on "Ways of Naming Dancers", the Plus Program Definitions only has a short Preface section with nothing at all on naming dancers.

It is only when you get to the Advance Program level that you find another extended discussion in the "Read This First" section called "How We Name Dancers".

Beginning at this level, whoever is dancing on the left side of a couple is called a Beaux, regardless of gender; Those on the right are called the Belles.

Dancer In a column are identified by a number 1 - 4. The first dancer in a column is named dancer #1, the second dancer is #2 and so forth. These terms are used in teaching Advance calls such as Transfer the Column.

Next is a discussion on Diamonds. In a Diamond formation (true in the Plus Program as well) we have Centers, who are holding hands and Points who are not holding hands. But just to confuse things, in an Hourglass formation we have a Diamond surrounded by a box where everybody in the Diamond are Centers, and the other four dancers in the box are the Points. I'm sure this is perfectly clear (if not take a look at the Advance Program discussion which includes diagrams.)

Next we have the definition of "Adjacent" dancers. Two dancers are said to be adjacent if they are close to each other with no intervening space or other dancers. This is true regardless of the dancers' facing directions.

Advance introduces even more new terms such as Centers and Outsides: Those dancers who are close to the center of the formation are the Centers; the others are called outsides. In lines and in columns, the end and outside are the same. However, in other formations - such as a Title Wave - the four dancers closest to the center of the formation are the Centers, the four dancers towards the end of the title wave (2 on each end) are called Outsides.

The last discussion on this topic introduces the term Very Centers. These are the two dancers closest to the flagpole center of the set. This term is only used when exactly two people are closest to the center.

OK then, that's it for clarifying which dancers the caller is talking to, right? Well, no not exactly, the caller can still point out a specific individual in a formation by their gender and facing direction. For example: in right hand, parallel ocean waves with the BOYS on the end of the wave, the caller could say, "The end BOY looking out Run". And finally, as a last resort "Petunia turn around!" - most embarrassing for Petunia however.

The next time your caller is trying to move some dancers around the square have some pity on him/her (and on your fellow dancers as well!).

There are currently 62 clubs that are members of WASCA. All clubs are in good standing. The annual WASCA business meeting was held on February 23, 2020. Fifty seven clubs were represented at the meeting. The annual meeting is the time that the Delegates vote on the next year slate of officers. The WASCA Executive Board members for 2020/21 will be C. T. and Margaret Montgomery, President; John and Daryl Davis; Vice President; Bobbi and Jeff Fuhr, Secretary and Linda and Steve Toth, Treasurer. The two Regional Directors elected for a new 3 year term beginning in June 2020 were Janet Kelley, Special Events Virginia and Stephanie and Joe Corson, Special Events, Maryland.

Besides voting for the 2020/21 WASCA Board of Directors, the Delegates also voted to not have a Delegates meeting in November 2020.

There was a lot of information discussed at the Delegates Meeting. Linda and Steve Toth and Bobbi and Jeff Fuhr discussed the 2020 WASCA Festival. Linda said to be sure to check the March issue of Calls 'n' Cues for all the Festival Information. There was also information given by Ginny Fromel and Rene and Mike Hermann about the 2021 WASCA Festival.

Dick Otis represented NCASDLA. He said 18 callers and cuers had joined the organization. Dick also mentioned that Kenny Farris, Bill Harrison, Gary Felton and Doren McBroom were all in the same calling class 50 years ago.

Any club that has a change in schedule for the summer should drop us an email to let us know to change the centerfold and Web club listing.

At the Delegates meeting, we announced that membership renewals are due before June 1, 2020. Yellow Membership renewal forms were distributed. We suggested that the Delegates turn in their club dues at the May 3, 2020 Delegates meeting. Please note that the membership form in a fillable format can be found on the wascaclubs.com web site. If you fill it out and print the completed form and send it to us with a check for $20.00 before June 1, we will be able to read it and hopefully enter the data correctly. We need your form with your contact information and delegate and manager's names and information so that we know where to send the minutes and announcements from WASCA. The completed form is also used in the proof of insurance at your dance location. June 1, 2020 is the deadline for renewals. After June 1, clubs become uninsured and not in good standing.

Please send us any email address, phone number, or postal address changes for your President (manager), Delegate, Alternate Delegate, or Information Contact. You can email them to or call us at 703-573-8378 with your changes.

CLUB NEWS

AQUA SQUARES

Callers: Bill Harrison or Gary Felton preside over Dances/Classes on Friday nights from 7:30—9:30pm at the Southern Community Center, 20 Appeal Lane, Lusby, MD For info and directions, call our President, Jim Cooney at 240-925-4242 or check out our website at www.aquasquaredancers.org

BELAIR SQUARE CATS

Mike Herman

Spring has arrived. The crocus and daffodils are blooming and the weather is warming. The Cherry Blossoms have bloomed as are many other trees and flowers. We always look forward to the new beginnings that come with spring. As we shed our winter wear perhaps we will also be able to begin shedding the illness that darkened this winter. If things should brighten during the month of April we can look forward to our Chocolate Affair dance on April 4. Calling is to be done by Art Lavigne and cueing with Dom Filardo. Yes that is a week early for Square Cats but our hall will not be available to us on our regular night due to the Easter holidays. On April 25, we look forward to celebrating the 56th Anniversary of the Belair Square Cats Square Dance Club. This club was founded in 1964 and has a lot of history to celebrate. We are to have Doren McBroom calling and Peg Kincaid cue this event.

In the meantime if you miss square dancing too much check out our website. There are links to dancing, lessons on line, photos and all kinds of fun memories. There are also other websites and you tube with videos and pictures of past festivals to enjoy.

And speaking of festivals, do you know there are quite a few square cats on the committee working to bring you the 2021 WASCA Festival title “Dancing Through the Cherry Blossoms”. There is room for you to volunteer; drop Ginny or Rene an e-mail to help.

Well wishes to all and always look forward!

BIZZY BEES

Susan LaFever

All who want to dance plus or just brush up on their plus dancing are welcome to join us. Dress in square dance attire, for the theme, or just come as you are. We dance at Oakton Elementary School, 3000 Chain Bridge Road in Oakton, VA from 8 to 10 PM, on the second and fourth Tuesdays. Dances are called by Mac McCall until the New year.

For questions contact Dave and Teresa Harrington, 571-306-7975 or pdhtih@gmail.com.

BOOMERANGS

Mary Sellman

Boomerangs Teaching Council is currently conducting a Beginning CTM Class Wednesday evenings from 7:30-9:00. The next session for new dancers will begin in September. Bill Harrison, our International caller, instructs using the Condensed Teaching Method (CTM). CTM class is not a traditional Basic class, but rather is based on Callerlab’s newly developed, reduced set of calls comprised of a combination of Basic and Mainstream, taught with the goal of getting new square dance students dancing and having fun as quickly as possible. We encourage our past students to attend and continue to improve your dancing.

Bill will be completing instruction on remaining Mainstream calls during April, review and dancing will continue through the end of May and Plus Classes begin June 3rd. Dancers who have finished CTM or Mainstream in the past, may join us now to get “up to speed” before moving on to Plus in June.

During the Coronavirus situation, stay safe and please call Lincolnia Senior Center to verify that the facility is open, Boomerangs will not be dancing if the building is closed. 703-914-0223.

Prospective students may contact the Boomerangs at 571-210-5480 for more details/enroll in classes. Cost for all students is $30 per 4 weeks with an $8 charge for walk-ins. Please consult our website:

Boomerangssquaredance.org for additional information.

Boomerang Classes meet every Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9:00 at Lincolnia Senior Center, 4710 N. Chambliss St., Alexandria, VA 22312.

CRABTOWN SQUARES

Margaret & CT Montgomery

As you are well aware, most dancing activities have been put on hold because of the precautions being taken to halt the spread of the corona virus. Both of our scheduled dances in March were cancelled because of school regulations. We do hope that everyone will stay safe and healthy and that we can all be dancing again soon.

Because of the Easter holiday, there was only one dance on our schedule for April. We are hoping that normal activities can be resumed by then and if so, please come to dance with us.

April 24: Spring Fling. Caller Art LaVigne and cuer Peg Kincaid. Dancing starts with early rounds at 7:30pm followed by 2x2 dancing from 8pm until 10pm at our usual location, Rolling Knolls Elementary School, 1985 Valley Road, Annapolis, MD 21401.

Dances are usually held on the 2nd, 4th and 5th Fridays and any changes to location or time will be posted on the www.wheresthedance.com and www.maryland-squaredancing.com websites. We are a 2x2 plus club (with early rounds) that loves to have a good time with good people and we would love to have you come to our dances.

For more information, please contact Dave and Linda Cleveland at 443-878-9013 or cleve747@gmail.com

DC LAMBDA SQUARES

Tonja Ducrest

The Last Club Night

The mood, this last club night for an unknown length of time (two weeks at best), was bright. Kathy brought a marvelous March birthday cake. And in honor of the corona virus all dancing was executed WITHOUT HANDS.

Unable to end a tip with the usual thanking hands, club members invented a new (unless you were around for Disco) tip closing: The Rump Bump.

A Gathering for Abe

On Tuesday DC Lambda Squares club members attended a gathering at Food & Friends where Abe used to volunteer. It was organized to honor Abe for his years of service. Nineteen people including the Executive Director and volunteers from Abe's regular Tuesday shift shared stories, ate cookies, and watched (three of the volunteers even took part) in a simple demo that Abe himself had choreographed for last year's Pride Festival.

Afterwards our group was shown a plaque dedicated to Abe and donated by Food & Friends. It is located outside the Food & Friends building.

DC Lambda Squares is a lesbian- and gay-inclusive square dance club serving the Washington, DC metropolitan area. The club is also straight-friendly and provides opportunities for members, visitors, and guests to dance in non-traditional roles in a comfortable environment for socializing around square dancing activities. DCLS supports square dancing levels through C1.

The club regularly meets Thursday, 7:30 – 9:30 P.M.,
National City Christian Church
5 Thomas Circle, NW
Washington, DC 20005

This location is accessible by Metro via McPherson Square on the Blue/Orange line or Farragut North on the Red line. On-street parking is available.

For further information, contact club President, Joe Branch, President@dclambdasquares.org, or Vice President, Vicepresident@dclambdasquares.org. Check out the Lambda Squares' website: <http://www.dclambdasquares.org/>

GERRYMANDERS OF MARYLAND

We dance two programs. On the 1st, 3rd and 5th Wednesdays we teach and dance floor level (to include beginner) from 7:30 - 8:30. After refreshments (usually to include ice cream) we dance full mainstream until 9:15 followed by easy plus / plus workshop for the rest of the evening. We end the evening with and a full plus tip. We accept students beginning at any time on a pay each night attended basis. When they are present, we teach new students from 7:30 to 8:30 pm. We have been finding with the students we have been having are learning very fast with this program. It fits nicely with students who are taking lessons elsewhere but would like some more practice. The more regular they can come the faster they learn. Students still can pay on the quarterly basis if they wish or they can pay as you go basis of $7 per night. Bruce Simpers and a guest caller (on 5th Wednesdays) preside.

On the 2nd and 4th Wednesday we dance a plus workshop from 7:30-8:00. Then from 8:00 until 9:30 we dance full plus. Kenny Farris is our caller. We dance at the North Chevy Chase Christian Church every Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 10:00. The cost is $7.per night. Mr. Gerry-mander will be glad to answer any questions or give directions if you call him at 703-920-2624.

GRAND SQUARES OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY

Ron Dean

The Grand Squares will be dark until after April 18th when we will revisit the situation. Stay tuned to this space or WASCA Dances for our next dance night.

LAKE OF THE WOODS

Susan Thomas

March was a big month for Lake of the Woods Club members. Students finished plus square dance lessons under the excellent instruction of Gene Chamberlain. A special class on March 11th ended in a graduation celebration for this year's students. Angels and other club members showed their spirit by wearing blue and white, the club colors.

The graduation dance prior to the ceremony.

Dancers enjoy cake and ice cream.

Club Members enjoy seeing the class graduate.

Graduates with class instructor Gene Chamberlain and Club President Dick Unser.

Gene Chamberlain was back on March 13th at the Community Center, to call for the VASARDA Booster Dance. Since this dance is so close to St. Patrick's Day, no doubt many members will be attired in green with many shamrocks putting in an appearance.

Unfortunately, the corona virus pandemic caused a number of older members with underlying health issues to cancel their plans for attending the "Route 66" themed WASCA Festival. As of March 12th WASCA decided to cancel the Festival because cancellations were pouring in, and many of those who were responsible for running the event fell into the category of persons who were advised not to be in such an environment. Everyone is sad to miss the event, but certainly it is better to be safe than sorry under the threat of the virus to older persons with underlying health conditions.

Larry Winegard is scheduled to call for the Lake of the Woods dance on March 27th if community health condition permit. He is sure to keep us alert with both line and square dancing. Note the change of location. This dance will be held in the Lower Level of the Lake of the Woods Clubhouse at 205 Lakeview Parkway.

Even though one can never tell about the weather, it is very likely that April will also bring warmer temperatures and brighter days. Because Easter is April 12th, there will be no dance on April 10th. On April 24th the Club is sponsoring a Spring Dinner Dance. Ed and Carol Pabst will be the callers for the Spring Dinner Dance. The Spring Dinner Dance will be held in the Lake of the Woods Clubhouse located at 205 Lake View Parkway, Locust Grove, VA 22508. The dinner and dance will be held in the ballroom of the Clubhouse. The view overlooking the lake makes this an especially enjoyable evening. Hopefully, health in Virginia will be back to normal and many club members will also dance the days and evenings away at VASARDA at the Founders Inn in Virginia Beach in May to the theme "Half Sashay the Hawaiian Way" .

The Lake of the Woods Square Dance Club dances mainstream and plus level at 7:30 on the second, fourth and fifth Friday of each month at the LOW Community Center located at 110 Sweetbriar Park Road, Locust Grove, VA 22508. Guest dancers are always welcome. Square dance attire is encouraged from September through May. Casual attire is fine for summer. LOW Square Dance Club provides light snacks and Steve's famous decaf and regular coffees! For more info or directions, visit our website at <https://sites.google.com/view/lowsquaredanceclub/home> or text/call Dick and Lynn Unser at 703-298-6254.

LORDS AND LADIES

Joyce Haring

Lords & Ladies are having it's first every "Crazy Hats" dance on April 3. This will be a fun-filled opportunity to be very creative. It will be a tough job for the judges to come up with a winner. Charlie Shoemaker will be the caller for this very special evening with the dances wearing their Crazy Hats. The club will be dancing at the Lake of the Woods Club House, 208 Lake of the Woods Parkway, Locust Grove, VA 22508. Please enter through the main gate on Route 3.

The club will be dark on April 17 as some of our members will be attending Pipe Stem. Visitors are always welcome. For more information call Marty & Ruth, 540-412-2186 or Frank & Mary, 540-841-7007.
