The Editor's Desk

And the lockdown goes on

I hope everyone is healthy and doing well. In light of the COVID-19 pandemic I am making a change to the this summer's publication schedule. Rather than having a May issue, followed by a three month summer issue, we will publish a May-June issue followed by a July-August issue. Why? First, a May only issue would not be too different from the April issue (everything canceled), Second, the summer issue deadline would be 15 May, and the future may not be any clearer then. With the change the next deadline will be 15 June. By then we will (hopefully) know how reopening is going and have a better feel for the future of square and round dancing.

We have some concerns about our two full time NCASDLA callers - Bill Harrison and John Marshall. With everything being canceled, their income has also been canceled. Steve Lucius' NCASDLA President's Message has more detail on how, if you are able, you can assist them. I would like to also request assistance for another full time caller - Tom Miller. While not a NCASDLA caller, Tom is definitely a "near local" caller and a long time WASCA festival favorite. I have been told that the first time he came to call at WASCA his parents had to drive him since he was too young to have a driver's license. As of this writing (30 April) there is no Go-Fund-Me set up for Tom, so you can send him assistance at

Tom Miller
3055 Colonel Drake Hwy
Box 72
Chest Spings, PA 16624

For all three callers, I recommend that checks sent directly to them rather than using Go-Fund-Me or similar. While such sites may not charge fees, there will be an ~3% fee to the credit card processing organization. Direct remittances don't have to pay that fee. When deciding how much you can afford, remember that you will not have to pay for the VASARDA or MDSDF conventions or this year's National convention

For the Square & Round Dancing community so far, so good. While we do have one obituary in this issue, I can not find any indication that she was a victim of COVID-19. That said, please continue letting me know about any deaths in the community - I have no other way of learning about them.

That is all for this issue. See you all on the other side

*CT and Margaret Montgomery
(WASCA Presidents 2019-2020)*

Your calendar probably looks a lot like ours with many cancelled events. It was certainly sad to see the notices of cancelled dances and Festivals appearing so regularly. All the large dances that we were hoping to attend from May through July have now been cancelled (Virginia State Convention, National Square Dance Convention, Star Spangled Banner Festival).

We hope that the situation improves in the near future so that we can return to normal dance activity. However, we might also start to think about how we might be able to adapt to some form of the "NEW NORMAL" that seems to be an expression on the news recently. In looking around to see what other dancers are thinking about we ran across a fun approach from fellow dancers in Canada. Check out "Dancing in the Garage Volume 19B" (Facebook page for Bob Simpson <https://www.facebook.com/bob.simpson.75054/videos/10158072424600149/>) They start with a teach for "Go Take a Hike". Find some space, turn up the audio and enjoy.

Unfortunately square and round dancing as we know it, can't be made to conform to the rules of social distancing so we may have to wait for some time before we can get back to enjoying our favorite activities. At least it is possible to keep in touch with the aid of modern technology. Telephone calls, emails and video conferencing may not be as good as actually being with other people but it does help.

We hope that you are in good health and enjoying spending time with your family while also catching up with all the work around the house. Of course, many of our dancers don't have this opportunity to pause and reflect as they are really busy providing essential services to keep everyone safe. A big thank you to those in the medical profession and other vital jobs. We certainly appreciate everything that they do – especially now under such difficult circumstances.

We look forward to dancing again as soon as possible.

Meanwhile, remember to "be careful out there".

THE NEXT ISSUE WILL BE JULY-AUGUST

THE DEADLINE will be the 15th of June

NCASDLA President's Message

Steve Lucius NCASDLA President

It's May, it's May, the lovely month of May. Unfortunately, we are still home in social isolation and missing our very favorite activities – Square and Round dancing. While we miss our in-person comradeship, e.g. the company and friendship of others with common aims, we are still in touch and thinking about the fun that our future holds for us.

As far as I'm aware, this evil COVID-19 virus has not touched our immediate family in the DMV area. I hope and pray this is true and continues to be true. Never-the-less, it has impacted our lives, some more than others. Across the Nation and the World for that matter, many of our full-time callers who make their living proving our entertainment are particularly hard hit.

Doren McBroom has established a Go Fun Me account for Bill Harrison and John Marshall – two of our local "Greats". If you are able, please contribute to the cause.

As we slowly come out of this pandemic, and as schools, senior centers and churches become available, we will get back to our favorite actives. Keep an eye on your email for news of the resumption of square and round dancing events.

If you are not a member of WASCADances@yahogroups.com, mdsdf@googlegroups.com, and or VASARDA.NEWS@gmail.com, consider joining one or more of these email distribution lists.

As the CallsNCues for May and June are being combined, this will be my last NCASDLA President's Message. NCASDLA will be electing new Officers in June. I have very much enjoyed my time as the NCASDLA President. See you around the dance floor, hopefully real soon!

Greetings, WASCA dancers again from a distance - no touching, no hugs, and unfortunately no dancing but best wishes for all. This vicious coronavirus pandemic, the health risks to our dancers, many of whom, like Berni and me, are among that segment of the population most vulnerable to the virus, and the economic shutdown ["shelter in place" directives] have required the cancelation of many of the dance festivals that we all had looked forward to enjoying this month and in June. Yes, we will miss dancing with everyone at the annual VA state convention, the RDTA Butterfly Ball in May, the Nationals and Roundalab conventions in June, and the annual MDSDF festival and ICBDA convention in July. But, there will be other years when we can enjoy these cancelled festivals and conventions.

Hopefully, the coronavirus pandemic has peaked and we may begin to see some relaxation of the current restrictions and a reopening of stores and schools in the next month or so in our WASCA area. However, with summer coming on, many of our local clubs, especially those dancing in local schools, go dark during the summer. With many of the festivals we normally enjoy during these summer months have been cancelled, it may be September before we are able to see and dance with many of our WASCA dancing friends. Until then, stay well, be cautious, and we will look forward to joyously dancing with everyone once it is safe and prudent to join everyone on the dance floor.

We've sorely missed seeing and dancing with all of our dancing friends and we hope you all will stay in touch with your dancing friends electronically or telephonically. We will look for opportunities to join all of you on the dance floor over the summer and this fall and will inform everyone of such opportunities in future messages.

62nd WASCA Spring Festival “WASCA’s Dancing Through the Cherry Blossoms.”

by directors
Ginny Fromel and Rene & Mike Hermann

We are getting ready to be “Dancing Through the Cherry Blossoms” at our WASCA 2021 Festival. Our registration form is on the wascaclubs.com site, which you can print out and mail in to get registered and make a room reservation. The official D.C. festival starts as our festival ends, and you might want to make arrangements to see some of the activities that will be happening at that time.

We are really disappointed that they cancelled this year’s Cherry Blossom Festival in D.C., but they did manage to show last year’s parade and activities one afternoon on the T.V. I wish I had known about it earlier, because I only got to see about half of the parade. The Washington D.C.’s annual National Cherry Blossom Festival commemorates the 1912 gift of 3,000 cherry trees from Tokyo to D.C. and is such a popular attraction that you will want to plan to attend the 2021 springtime festival. The Cherry Blossom fever hits during peak bloom of the Yoshino cherry trees around the Tidal Basin. You can see other blossoms at the U.S. National Arboretum and The Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception. Other countries also have received Cherry trees from Tokyo, and you can see some spectacular sites in Canada by clicking on the links that are posted in Peggy Portner’s article. The D.C. Festival features creative and diverse activities that promote traditional and contemporary arts and culture, natural beauty and the environment, and community spirit and youth education, the majority of which are free and open to the public. Signature Festival events include the Opening Ceremony, the Blossom Kite Festival, and the National Cherry Blossom Festival Parade. There are over 150 daily cultural performances by local, national and international entertainers, sports competitions, and so much more.

We are really excited about our callers and cuers for the festival, which you can find pictured on the back of our registration form. The callers include Jerry Biggerstaff, Jeremy Butler, Bill Harrison, Eric Henerlau, Tom Miller, Mike Sikorsky, Jerry Story and Buddy Weaver. Our cuers will be Wayne & Barbara Blackford, Sally & Bob Nolen, Marie & Randy Preskitt, and Tammy & Curt Worlock. There will also be some Line Dancing prompted by Donna & Doug Riley.

We hope that you will enjoy our theme for 2021, and we are looking for anyone interested in helping with artwork and decorations. There is a lot of beautiful cherry blossom material out there right now for those that want to dress up for the theme at our March 18 – 20, 2021, “Dancing Through the Cherry Blossoms” festival.

We now have eight clubs signed up for theme dances, so please contact our theme dance coordinator, Janet Kelley, at FestivalThemeDance@WASCAclubs.com and set up your theme dance date. Since our deadline for the festival hotel rates is February 2nd, we would advise you to have your theme dance prior to that date. We have been in contact with the hotel to make changes and improvements and hope to make this the best festival yet. We will tell you more about the changes in the months to come.

SO, we need to look to the future festival, and don't wait – keep your eyes open for any decorations, since this year's Cherry Blossom festival is over and there might be some things on sale. Once the Pandemic is over, we are planning to do some traveling to some other festivals and hope to see you on the road. All the local festivals were cancelled due to the pandemic; but for now, the Single Square Dancers USA, will be attempting to hold their 50th Single Square Dancer's USA (SS-DUSA) Dance-A-Rama in Newark, OH on Labor

Day Weekend (September 4 – 6). However, if you plan on going to any other festivals and would be willing and able to take a small tri-fold and some flyers with you, please let us know.

We hope you are all staying safe and keeping busy. Some clubs are keeping in touch with others via email or on-line sites. We all miss the dancing and personal interaction with friends and family, and it will be really great when things get back to normal. Hope to see you sometime soon on the dance floor!

Dancing through the Cherry Blossoms

O Canada

While ‘dancing through the cherry blossoms’, we first visit our closest neighbor, Canada. The author was inspired by the photo above from a close friend in Vancouver.

Vancouver

In the early 1930’s, Japan gave hundreds of trees to Vancouver to thank the Japanese Canadians who served in World War I. Today the city boasts over 40,000 trees.

Most of the Vancouver Cherry Blossom Festival (April 2-26) was cancelled due to covid-19, but in better times, its Tree Walk is the highlight of the Festival. Their website (<https://www.vcbf.ca/?pmo=VAN>) shows photos of many species: ‘Shirotae’, ‘Umineko’, ‘Sendai-shidare’, ‘Takasago’, ‘Mikuruma-gaeshi’; ‘Ukon’ and ‘Kanzan’. Other usual events are The Big Picnic, a concert and haiku invitational.

Queen Elizabeth Park, the city’s horticultural jewel, is a 52 hectare (128 acre) park sitting 152 metres (500 ft.) above sea level; it’s the highest point in the city and is located in its geographic center. The Bloedel Conservatory is a domed paradise with 120 free-flying birds and 500 exotic plants and flowers. In addition, the Park features a landscaped quarry garden, an arboretum, sculptures and recreational opportunities: tennis, lawn bowling, pitch and putt. The Celebration Pavilion, a popular event (think wedding) choice, has sliding walls that open to a patio and garden area. (<https://vancouver.ca/parks-recreation-culture/queen-elizabeth-park.aspx?pmo=VAN>)

Stanley Park is the city’s first and largest urban park, a green oasis in an urban setting. It houses Canada’s largest aquarium and offers 400 hectares (1½ sq. miles) of trails, beaches, rainforest, and wildlife, alongside natural, cultural and historic landmarks. (<https://vancouver.ca/parks-recreation-culture/stanley-park.aspx?pmo=VAN>)

Victoria

The capital city of British Columbia (B.C.) is one of the oldest cities in the Pacific Northwest. Known as 'The Garden City', its temperate, snow-free climate is ideal for the cherry blossom trees, especially against the turn-of-the-century Victorian buildings. Victoria is also the biking capital of Canada, offering trails through both downtown areas and neighborhoods with masses of blooming trees. (<https://www.victoriabuzz.com/2016/02/your-guide-to-the-top-areas-to-see-the-blossoms-in-bloom/?pmo=BC>)

Edmonton

Moving east, Edmonton, the capital of Alberta, famous for farms, orchards and vineyards, sees the cherry blossoms in May. One website claims that the George F. Hustler Memorial Plaza has over 200 different varieties. Other viewing sites are the French Quarter, the Victoria Promenade and the Alberta Legislature grounds. (Disclaimer: the author could not locate photos online).

Toronto

Further east, Toronto succumbs annually to the Japanese tradition of Sakura Hanami, cherry blossom viewing. The blossom peak is in late April-early May. Their blossoms are a recent acquisition, with a similar history as elsewhere: in 1959, the Japanese ambassador to Canada, Toru-Hagiwara, presented Toronto with 2,000 Somei-Yoshino Sakura trees on behalf of the citizens of Tokyo. The gift was in appreciation for Canada's welcoming Japanese-Canadians who relocated to the city after World War II*. From 2000 to 2012, the consulate's Sakura Project has planted an additional 3,000 trees all over Ontario. The High Park Nature Center (<https://highparknaturecentre.com/2/cherryblossom>) and Sakura in High Park (<https://www.sakurainhighpark.com/>) cancelled their events this year, but have many beautiful photos on their websites.

*The city, the provincial capital of Ontario and the country's most populous city, is an important immigrant destination. Fifty percent of residents belong to a visible minority population group and 200 distinct ethnic groups are represented.

Ottawa

The capital of Canada is more famous for its tulips, given in gratitude for sheltering the royal Dutch family during WWII, but cherry blossoms abound in Central Experimental Farm National Historic Site's Arboretum (video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uLdbsoTA9z0>), Dows Lake and in the wide open spaces outside the city.

Where have all our dances gone, long time passing?
 Where have all our dances gone, long time ago?
 Where have all our dances gone?
 The Coronavirus cancelled them every one!
 When can we dance again? When will we dance again?*

*Thanks to friend Dave Van Dyk who paraphrased Pete Seeger's Where Have All the Flowers Gone?

My, how different the world looks since I wrote the previous article that appeared in this publication! Who would ever have imagined that the majority of Americans would come under a "stay-at-home" order that basically requires that we shelter "in place"? Across our nation most, if not all, dances, festivals, and State Conventions and even the National Convention have been cancelled. I do not have a crystal ball to foretell how long it will take for things to get back to normal. Our sincere hope is that long before Labor Day weekend people will once again be safe and feel comfortable square dancing. After not dancing for so many months, we should all be ready to attend this fun-filled festival sponsored by Single Square Dancers USA (SSDUSA). Please make plans to join us as we celebrate our 50th and final Dance-A-Rama (DAR) festival Labor Day weekend (Sept 4 - 6, 2020) at the Cherry Valley Hotel, 2299 Cherry Valley Road SE, Newark, OH,

They have hosted and cued at multiple weekend festivals: Dancers Delight Weekends at Baylor Beach, All Round Dance Weekends at Baylor Beach, Broken Straw Weekends at Loudonville and Marietta Weekends. They also have cued and taught at Ohio's State Dance Conventions, West Virginia State Conventions, and at multiple past SSDUSA Dance-A-Rama festivals.

Bonnie Lawrence (IN) is the regular cuer for four square dance clubs and shares the cueing at three other clubs, and has cued at multiple weekend festivals. She teaches Phase II through Phase V+1 rounds and also teaches line dance classes.

Please join us to celebrate our Golden Anniversary. Our registration form/flyer can be downloaded from the SSDUSA website at dar2020.ssdusa.com. We need your help to spread the word. ALL SQUARE AND ROUND DANCERS ARE WELCOME AT OUR 50TH DANCE-A-RAMA FESTIVAL!

Self-Isolation: Thoughts and Projects. By Paula Ropshaw, Aqua Squares

It is the end of April and we are well into our self-isolation. I have cleaned every closet, cabinet and drawer in the house. You can't imagine (unless you are doing the same thing) some of the things I've found. Now I have to think, how did they get there, who put them there, and what do I do with these long lost, forgotten things? I've put three years worth of family pictures into albums. I've written letters that I've meant to write for the last year. I've even broken out the ironing board. Remember that thing? Now I am racking my brain to think of things to do. Let's see. Why don't I do the things that always catch me off guard or cause a panic at the last minute. Of course, sewing. I am sure that are lots of shirts, blouses, slacks, pants, skirts, dresses and coats that have loose or missing buttons. What a great time to go through our wardrobes and find anything with missing buttons or a button hanging on by a single thread, then go through my button box. (Don't you have a button box?) I have a friend that collects buttons and makes the cutest little things with them. In fact, one year she made a Christmas wreath out of buttons. Believe me, that won't be happening at my house. But, if you are a crafty-type person, now might be a good time to start on homemade Christmas gifts. And that brings me to my newest 'project'. My square dance clothes. I'm going to inventory, wash, iron and repair all of my (and my husband's) square dance clothes. Considering we have danced for over 20 years and I NEVER leave WASCA empty handed, this project should keep me busy for a while. Also, we have just built a house and my square dance clothes have been boxed up for the last year, I guess it would be wise to start with washing everything. (By the way, I have claimed the guest bedroom closet in the new house as my square dance closet.) I will check hems, buttons, & seams. While I'm at it, I am going to polish all my square dance shoes. I only have 2 colors, black and white and Pete only has black, so this should be a short project). (Note to self: next WASCA buy red square dance shoes.) But what about crinolines? What is the best way to clean them? Usually I just dunk them in a tub of soapy water, rinse and hang on the line. What about starch? Do you starch your crinolines? When I first started dancing I use to dunk my crinoline in a tub of starch water. Then I would hang it (I only had one) on the line and spread the layers out over several lines with clothes pins. The next time I wore it, it stuck out so far I couldn't see my feet. A neighbor finally asked me what that was on the line.

So when we are back on the dance floor, I will be all gussied and prettied up, no hanging strings or loose buttons. But best of all, I will know exactly what new things I need to buy at WASCA.

Thinking of and missing all my square dance friends.

CHOREO CORNER with Dick Otis

Couple Dancing with Phantoms, or “How am I going to remember how to dance after COVID-19”?

Spring is here and summer is coming. Perhaps we will begin to move back to a normal life soon but in truth, nobody knows. The future of school opening is hazy at best – certainly not this school year – and how/when next year is still unknown. Of course, many clubs rely on the schools for a place to dance. Lincolnia Senior Center, and presumably other Senior Centers, follow the school systems.

I hear many dancer comments on how they can maintain square dance proficiency during the pandemic. Let's face it folks, you are NOT going to forget how to dance from a few weeks or months of not dancing. On the other hand, you may be missing dancing. Ah ha! We can do something about that! Assuming you and your spouse, partner, family etc. are social distancing from others, you still have yourselves to enjoy. Personally, I am so enjoying my 6 month old grand-daughter who stays with us during the week so here parents can telecommute from my well-equipped computer cave. But did you know, you can STILL square dance at home. Here is how:

The basic concept is a mini-square, or two couple dancing. You most likely (almost certainly) encountered mini-squares when you were learning to dance. It is much easier to keep track of things when there are only 4 people involved and many square dance moves can be practiced with 4 dancers. But what happens when there is only two of you? We are going to reach out to the Callerlab “C” program for the answer, which is “phantom dancers”, sometimes referred to as “imaginary dancers”.

I'm going to give you some simple routines that you can practice at home, but you are not limited to these. You too, can be a caller and make up your own sequences from the list below. Hint: It helps if after each call, if you and your partner both point to the imaginary dancers. Not interested in being a caller? Not to worry, Buddy Weaver has a solution for you. On his podcast page, <https://buddyweavermusic.podbean.com> Buddy had three recordings sessions for a single couple. Enterprising dancers have already posted YouTube videos of these routines. Check them out at: <https://tinyurl.com/buddyonecouple-1> and <https://tinyurl.com/buddyonecouple-2> But first, give these routines a try and see how you like one couple dancing.

May-June 2020
By Tom & Nancy Stafford

Well, we don't think anyone is dancing now unless it's a couple dancing to Zoom in their house. What a strange or guess we could say abnormal time. When the 2020 WASCA Festival was cancelled, we had no idea that there would be a domino effect with the 2020 Virginia State Convention; the 2020 National Convention in Spokane, the 2020 Star Spangled Banner Festival and the 2020 PA Fall Festival all cancelled. Also, the Apple Blossom Festival dance was cancelled. What a really sad time.

Have you been checking on your club members to see if they are doing ok? We have heard that you can use Zoom for free meetings now during the Covid-19 quarantine. There are apps on your phone where you can call and see people. On the Iphone you can use Facetime and on an Android you can use Duo.

Hopefully, we will be able to start dancing again in September. The May Delegates' meeting will not be held due to the Lincolnia Senior Center and all Senior Centers in Fairfax County being closed plus Virginia's Governor Northam mandate that no groups over 10 can meet until June 10.

The 2019/2020 WASCA fiscal year is fast approaching its end. The 2020/21 club membership renewals are due by the end of May. If you need a membership form go to www.wascaclubs.com and fill out the fillable PDF membership form, save it to your computer with a new name and then email it to us or just print it out and mail it with the $20 dues. The information from the membership form will be used to enter the times the club dances; the location where the club dances; the caller and the cuer, and the clubs info contact in the centerfold of Calls 'n' Cues. We also use the current information to get a contact email and phone number so we know how to contact someone if we or someone else needs information. The membership information and annual dues are needed to keep your insurance coverage current. WASCA's next fiscal year starts June 1, 2020.

The next WASCA Delegates' Meeting will be held on September 27, 2020 at the Lincolnia Senior Center in Alexandria, VA. This will be the first meeting for the 2020/2021 Fiscal Year. Please plan to have your Delegate attend so that your club will know what is happening in the WASCA area. Remember to bring flyers and be prepared to tell the other Delegates what is happening in your club.

Assuming that we will be able to have events this summer, will your club be dancing? If so, please let us know ASAP so that we can get the information in the Calls n Cues Centerfold and on the Web page. Please send us any email address, phone number, or postal address changes for your President (manager), Delegate, Alternate Delegate, or Information Contact. You can email them to membership@wascaclubs.com or call us at 703-573-8378 with your changes.

In light of the COVID-19 Pandemic,
We are NOT publishing a Club Directory this issue.
When the situation has resolved,
We will publish an updated directory

CLUB NEWS

AQUA SQUARES

Paula Ropshaw

If times were different, I would be writing about all the fun things our club and class were doing. But things are different and we are not gathering each Friday night for fellowship, fun and dancing. And I am sure I speak for our club when I say we miss it. But for now we are keeping in touch by phone and text and email. And from your dance friends in southern Maryland, we are praying for our friends, neighbors, our country and the world that we will come through this together and stronger. We wish you all continued good health or speedy recovery and look forward to when we can once again left Alamand.

Club Email: aquasquaresclub@yahoo.com

Club website: www.aquasquaredancers.org

When we dance, we are a Plus club with classes. Callers: Bill Harrison or Gary Felton preside over Dances/Classes on Friday nights from 7:30—9:30pm at the Southern Community Center, 20 Appeal Lane, Lusby, MD For info and directions, call our President, Jim Cooney at 240-925-4242

BELAIR SQUARE CATS

Mike Herman

The azaleas are now in bloom. The “Cats” are still on the prowl for dances. However, the Belair dance site St Matthews UM church will be closed through June 30th. Please visit our website to view past dance events. Square Cat members stay in touch with emails, phone calls, and texts. Club member birthdays/anniversaries are remembered with traditional greeting cards.

Virgil Forbes did “no touch” instruction for the last Belair square dance class in March. For those of us who have been in this activity many years there was a dangle called “Venus de Milo” we earned by doing square dance tips without touching. I remember a lot of laughter and conversation involved as dancers would forget and remember their hands were not to be used.

We have been doing puzzles at home that have had themed topics such involving previous festivals. We have also had a chance to catch up with yard work. (Which also requires a face mask if you have pollen allergies and work gloves!) Keep busy and safe for the rest of the Spring.

Well wishes to all and always looking forward!

BIZZY BEES

Susan LaFever

All who want to dance plus or just brush up on their plus dancing are welcome to join us. Dress in square dance attire, for the theme, or just come as you are. We dance at Oakton Elementary School, 3000 Chain Bridge Road in Oakton, VA from 8 to 10 PM, on the second and fourth Tuesdays. Dances are called by Mac McCall until the New year.

For questions contact Dave and Teresa Harrington, 571-306-7975 or pdhtih@gmail.com.

BOOMERANGS

Mary Sellman

Since it’s almost impossible to square dance 6 feet apart, Boomerangs Teaching Council and hopefully all of you, are currently sheltering at home and dances are canceled until we receive the “all clear”. The next Beginning CTM Class session for new dancers is anticipated to begin in September. Until then, keep your distance, wash your hands, stay healthy and safe! We look forward to seeing you on the dance floor soon!

Hope you're all well. Unfortunately, it looks like we have to cancel another month, so there will be no dances in May. I'll be sending out a missive about cancellations/openings on a month by month basis. Really, until the restaurants are re-opened, you can expect that The Crossfires will be cancelled. Just got a note from Canada that their July-Aug 2020 festival has been cancelled (can't even legally cross the border at the moment, either)

DC LAMBDA SQUARES

Tonja Ducrest

Our First Zoom (will it be the last?)

DC Lambda Squares' president set up a Zoom meeting for the club on a Thursday night when everyone normally would have gotten together at the regular club night.

Congratulations to everyone who made it into the Zoom meeting Missy so kindly set up for us. Also to those who tried to sneak in the back door without being noticed (didn't work). And thank you to Brian J. for sending us this wonderful screen shot. Now even people who didn't make the meeting can see everyone who did, including some surprises: Michael Priser, Jan and Louis, Dan and Paul in Florida, Bob Rhode, Tom Lowderbaugh, Wendy Pickett. We can only hope we have more of these while we're all starving for one another's company and missing our beloved activity of SQUARE DANCING.

DC Lambda Squares is a lesbian- and gay-inclusive square dance club serving the Washington, DC metropolitan area. The club is also straight-friendly and provides opportunities for members, visitors, and guests to dance in non-traditional roles in a comfortable environment for socializing around square dancing activities. DCLS supports square dancing levels through C1.

The club regularly meets Thursday, 7:30 – 9:30 P.M.. However, due to the Coronavirus Pandemic: there will be No Club Night or Class. DCLS typically follows DC Public Schools' closures (currently closed through May 29). Therefore, club night is suspended through May 28. We are also canceling our current Mainstream class for this period as well.

We normally dance at

National City Christian Church
5 Thomas Circle, NW
Washington, DC 20005

This location is accessible by Metro via McPherson Square on the Blue/Orange line or Farragut North on the Red line. On-street parking is available.

For further information, contact club President, Joe Branch, President@dclambdasquares.org, or Vice President, Vicepresident@dclambdasquares.org. Check out the Lambda Squares' website: <http://www.dclambdasquares.org/>

GAD ABOUTS

Bob Lawn

The Gad Abouts like every club in the country have had to cancel all dances. As I write this on 4/15/20 there might be some slight improvement, but I have the feeling we will be dealing with social distancing for some time. We have special dances lined up this year with, Gary Shoemaker in June, Cameron Harnish in July and Mike Sikorsky in September if we get back to dancing by then. We dance at the WACOHU Grange near the intersection of Rts 40 and 63 (16412 National Pike). Our starting time for rounds is 7:00pm, squares at 7:30, with an ending time of 10:00pm. For more info contact club Pres. Bob Lawn at 717-977-1040 or rtlawn@msn.com or our web site at gad-about.com.

The Gad Abouts were sponsoring the Gettysburg Festival this year. That dance has been cancelled. We plan on hosting the dance will be all day Saturday, May 29, 2021. Callers will be Tom Miller, Bill Harrison and Art LaVigne. The cuers will be Butch and Roberta Bloxom. The Pennsylvania Fabulous Fall Festival schedule in September has also been cancelled and will hopefully be held in September 2021.

GERRYMANDERS OF MARYLAND

Ed Cragg

With the COVID-19 stay-at-home order, the Gerrymanders have been holding a series of "non dances" in honor of various things. 1 April it was "April Fools Day", 8 April was "National Zoo Lovers" day, 15 April was "Remember the Titanic", 22 April was "Earth Day" and 29 April was "International Dance Day". We will continue to hold these non-dances until we can dance again.

The Gerrymanders dance two programs. On the 1st, 3rd and 5th Wednesdays we teach and dance floor level (to include beginner) from 7:30 - 8:30. After refreshments (usually to include ice cream) we dance full mainstream until 9:15 followed by easy plus / plus workshop for the rest of the evening. We end the evening with and a full plus tip. We accept students beginning at any time on a pay each night attended basis. When they are present, we teach new students from 7:30 to 8:30 pm. We have been finding with the students we have been having are learning very fast with this program. It fits nicely with students who are taking lessons elsewhere but would like some more practice. The more regular they can come the faster they learn. Students still can pay on the quarterly basis if they wish or they can pay as you go basis of $7 per night. Bruce Simpers and a guest caller (on 5th Wednesdays) preside.

On the 2nd and 4th Wednesday we dance a plus workshop from 7:30-8:00. Then from 8:00 until 9:30 we dance full plus. Kenny Farris is our caller. We dance at the North Chevy Chase Christian Church every Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 10:00. The cost is $7.per night. Mr. Gerry-mander will be glad to answer any questions or give directions if you call him at 703-920-2624.

GRAND SQUARES OF PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY

Ron Dean

A quick check in with our dancers finds everybody in good health and getting antsy to dance again. Hope the same is true for all of you.

Stay tuned for the next installment from the other side.

LAKE OF THE WOODS

Susan Thomas

As all of you who are reading this are likely to know, the Governor of Virginia issued a stay at home order for the state through June 10th. Lake of the Woods Square Dance Club was fortunate to complete Plus Classes and hold graduation on March 11th as reported in the April issue of "Calls 'n' Cues". The Club danced on March 13th to calls by Gene Chamberlain although some dancers with health issues had already decided to stay at home.

Lake of the Woods closed the locations where we dance, as well, shortly after that March 13th dance. So Lake of the Woods Club officers had the decision made for them regarding holding any dances. It was disappointing to miss WASCA, the Club's Spring Dinner Dance, and VASARDA. Nevertheless, stopping the spread of the CORVD 19 pandemic needs to be the top priority for everyone. We all want to be here to dance in the future. Obviously, it is not possible to square dance without touching hands, not to mention the comedy of errors that would result if we social distanced! The word generally has been to "tighten up those squares!"

I believe it is safe to say that Lake of the Woods Square Dance Club will not be dancing again before the second or fourth Friday in June. This, of course will be dependent on the Governor lifting the order to stay at home. Surely, we all hope and pray that things will return to normal sooner rather than later, but never in our wildest dreams did any of us anticipate what has occurred over the last several weeks. What we are able to do in the future is dependent on what occurs over the next four to six weeks. Continue to social distance, wash hands, and clean those surfaces in order to stay well!

Gene Chamberlain is scheduled to call on May 8, May 29, and June 12th. Unless the governor changes the stay at home order from June 10th, the only one of those dances that will be held will be June 12th. Bill Harrison is scheduled to call on June 26th. None of this is certain until the current regulations regarding where it is acceptable to travel are changed. Check the Club website at the link noted below, or to be completely certain text/call Dick or Lynn Unser at the phone number given below.

When it is time to write in June for July and August, hopefully, things will be back to normal, and the Club will be following the published schedule. At the present, the word is, "EVERYTHING IS CANCELLED at least until June 10th. Stay tuned and hopefully in another month that will change, and I can invite you to join Lake of the Woods for a dance.

UNDER NORMAL CONDITIONS:

The Lake of the Woods Square Dance Club dances mainstream and plus level at 7:30 on the second, fourth and fifth Friday of each month at the LOW Community Center located at 110 Sweetbriar Park Road, Locust Grove, VA 22508. Guest dancers are always welcome. Square dance attire is encouraged from September through May. Casual attire is fine for summer. LOW Square Dance Club provides light snacks and Steve's famous decaf and regular coffees! For more info or directions, visit our website at <https://sites.google.com/view/lowsquaredanceclub/home> or text/call Dick and Lynn Unser at 703-298-6254.

Is keeping you away (bye, dancers, goodbye)
