The Editor's Desk

It is WASCA Festival time

If you did not already know that, you will certainly learn about it in this issue. According to preliminary registration information we will have more dancers this year than last. However, unless we have a surge of several hundred dancers, we will still be significantly below our pre-pandemic average.

That said, I have some concerns about future festivals. That concern can be expressed in one word: VOLUNTEERS. The basic fact is that the WASCA festival (and other festivals & conventions) are run by volunteers. No volunteers mean no festivals. In the case of the WASCA festival, the only individuals who are paid are the dance leaders: nationally known callers and cuers. Everyone else is a volunteer. I should also note that for many conventions and festivals, even the callers and cuers are volunteers. They volunteer (donate) their time.

Returning to our WASCA Festival, volunteers are needed at all levels from Festival Director to hourly volunteers such as 50/50 ticket sellers. After several "Atlantic Conventions" in the 1950s, the first WASCA festival was held in 1960. This year is the sixty-second festival. During the twentieth century, each festival had a new director, where as in the twenty plus years since the year 2000 repeat directors have become common. (Next year Daryl&John Davis will be directing their fourth festival since 2007!!) As if finding volunteers for festival directors (and major committee chairs) is not difficult enough, finding hourly volunteers to work the festival is just as hard, just ask Paula Ropshaw (the volunteer coordinator for this year's festival). Those who have attended theme dances will remember the pleas for volunteers.

Bottom line – we can no longer be satisfied for a general request for volunteers. We need YOU to volunteer. The alternative is that festivals and conventions will die out. Look to Pennsylvania: first the state convention ended. Then a replacement, the Pennsylvania Fabulous Fall Festival, has had three successful events, however the last I heard, they are unable to find a director for the fourth. If we want the WASCA festival to avoid this fate,

YOU NEED TO VOLUNTEER.

From the WASCA President's Corner

*CT & Margaret Montgomery
(WASCA Presidents 2022-2023)*

Many local clubs have returned to dancing but in general have not returned to their pre pandemic attendance. We attended the farewell dance (which was also a WASCA theme dance) at Good Luck Squares and were sorry that after more than 33 years of dancing they had to close their doors due to declining club membership. We know that other clubs are also struggling and we are hoping that with better weather and the graduation of some new dancers, there will be larger gatherings at the club dances. We certainly need to encourage new dancers and hope to welcome many of them to the mainstream class level invitational at the WASCA Festival.

We are now within a couple of weeks of WASCA's 62nd Spring Festival "Dancing through the Cherry Blossoms" so excitement is mounting. The Festival Directors, Ginny Fromel and Rene and Mike Hermann and their Committee have put a lot of work into preparation for this Festival and we do hope that you will enjoy the result. We thank them all for their work and also thank the many clubs that gave their support by holding Theme dances.

We feel the Festival is a great event and we hope that you will attend. We have an incredible staff of callers & cuers again this year and hope that you will enjoy dancing with them. We have seven halls for dancing Thursday night and eight halls available on Friday and Saturday. The hearing assist equipment is available in four halls. There will be the same type of wood flooring installed by Dance Jam Productions in all halls. Claims for these types of floors include reduced dancer fatigue and reduced lower back and knee pain. Maybe this will encourage you to enjoy more of the 28 hours of dancing that are available.. The difficult part will be deciding between all the choices offered.

We hope that when you attend the Festival later this month you will let us know what you think. You can talk to anyone on the Board or Festival Committee during the weekend but the best way is to also fill out a survey form. The survey forms will carry more weight as they provide a written record to be reviewed and will provide guidance for future planning.

Have fun and enjoy the Festival

Multi-Program Dances – Pros and Cons

Multi-program dances are becoming more common and there are several aspects to a multi-program dance. Multi-program dances can be in one hall or in multiple halls. The festivals in our region are examples of one end of the multiprogram, multiple-halls spectrum. The other end of the multiprogram dance spectrum is the single hall and a single caller that calls two programs during a two hour dance.

Multi-program dances have some good points. Dancers can gather together at the same time and place which is good for socialization and generating feelings of cohesiveness and belonging. Multi program dances of some kinds work well in some clubs or in a club that has class on the same night as the club dance.

In my humble opinion, because dancers that dance the mainstream program only dance a portion of the time, they should pay less than the dancer that can dance all of the time. Multi program dances lend themselves to free dances because nobody pays for something they don't get.

There are many variations of a multi-program dance. Probably the most common is a single hall with the program that is being called changing during the dance. Perhaps most common is a dance with alternating Mainstream and Plus tips. Something that was more common years ago is a dance with "Star Tips". One program, Plus for instance, was called during the night but at the end of the dance, the caller would call another tip (or tips) from another program. This is still done some at challenge danced where the dance might be C1 all night, but a C2 tip might be called after the advertised hours were over. Other versions of star tips include star tips as part of the program. One festival I attended had a Saturday schedule with 10:00-11:30 AM Plus workshop and 11:30-12:00 Advanced star tips. This is where star tips are part of the normal schedule but fit into what would normally be a break. At the WASCA festival, there have been C2 star tips from 5:00-5:30 during the evening dinner breaks. These tips were not in the written schedule.

Additionally, there can be a dance with multiple halls, each hall with its own program. This is what the WASCA festival is. In contrast to a two-program dance with alternating tips, a multi program dance can be formatted with all one program for an hour and then another program for an hour,.

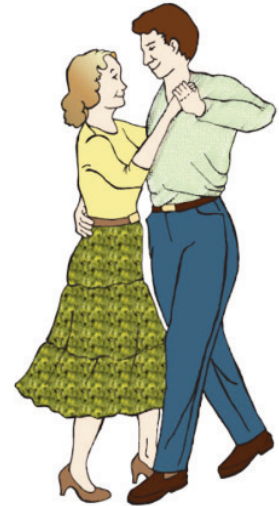

A multi program dance changes the character of the dance for both the dancers and the caller. Dancers at a multi-program dance have different levels of participation, depending on what program(s) they dance. A Mainstream dancer can only dance the Mainstream program. Therefore, they must sit out every Plus tip. That is half a dance for an ordinary two-program dance. These dancers do not really get warmed up the whole night. For them, it is like dancing the first tip all night long.

There are different people on the floor each tip. As mentioned above, some of those dancers have danced every tip and some have not danced as much. Callers sometimes build choreographic material from one tip to the next. For those dancers that miss some tips, the caller can't build ability or choreographic foundation for "creative" material. For example, a caller might want to call the sequence scoot back, boys fold, girls turn thru, courtesy turn. Because of the difficulties in this sequence, the caller might use scoot back, boys fold, girls do-si-do in a tip and then in the following tip, use girls turn thru and boys reach in to courtesy turn before putting them all together in a third tip. This type of building is not effective at a multi-program dance. The dance becomes "flat" because every tip is the first tip.

The same concept holds for creating highs and lows in excitement and emotion. The caller might build excitement by using singing calls that go from a soft slow song to a tear-the-house-down, dancing-on-the-ceiling song over two to four tips. When a large number of dancers miss the tips in between, the buildup is not effective.

An impact of the multi-program dance is that the caller calls a dance that doesn't have highs and lows in both level of difficulty and emotion...and that reflects poorly on the caller.

After a depressing long hiatus, RDTA had a wonderful Snowflake Ball on Sunday February 19 at a new venue with two separate halls to accommodate all phase II-IV and phase IV-VI dancers. We thoroughly enjoyed seeing and dancing with the 38 dancers who joined us at the Occoquan Elementary School for 2 1/2 hours of outstanding dancing and many delightful snacks and assorted goodies. Our special thanks to Dom and Joan Filardo for developing a thoroughly enjoyable dance program, to Rose and John Miller for securing this new and very accommodating facility. We know the dancers had a great time dancing to the lively cueing from Christina Eum, Dom and Joan Filaro, Eileen and Chip Hopper, Amy and Ken Shottling and the Ryders. What a great way to get ready for round dancing at the WASCA Festival coming up March 16 to 18.

Yes, it's beginning to feel like spring and we're all looking forward to finally "dancing through the cherry blossoms" and dancing with the outstanding cuer couples on staff –the Garzas, the Preskitts, the Worlocks and Randy Lewis and Debbie Olson. Amy and Ken Shottling are the program coordinators for the Round Dance Student Invitational at this 2023 WASCA Festival. They are working with the Garzas and Lewis and Olson to assure WASCA round dance students will have a stupendous dancing experience during the Student Invitational on Saturday, March 18 from noon to 2PM in the Terrace Ballroom. We also want to remind round dancers to consider joining some of their favorite local RDTA cuers who will provide phase II-IV dancing during the RDTA hour on Saturday, March 18 from noon to 1PM in Plaza Ballroom A. Why not take a late lunch and join them for an hour dancing some of your favorite dances that may not be on the current WASCA round dance program.

We expect to have our annual RDTA Butterfly Ball later in May or early June at the Lincolnia Senior Center. In addition to these special dances, your local RDTA cuers continue to dance at their Maryland and Virginia round dance and 2x2 clubs. Check the schedules later in this issues for specific times, days and locales. Finally, why not shake off your lethargy and join all those WASCA round dancers having fun dancing with their special partners to great music. The Ryders are having a basic class on Sundays in VA and the Shottlings are having a basic class on Mondays in MD. Check with your local cuers or the information in this Calls 'n Cues issues for a basic round dance class convenient for you. Make 2023 your time to get down and rumba, cha ,waltz, two step, and jive!!

Stay safe and healthy. To quote a dear and recently departed dancing friend -- "Life is short so take it by the hand and dance". We'll look forward to seeing everyone on the dance floor during the rest of 2023.

62nd WASCA Spring Festival “WASCA’s Dancing Through the Cherry Blossoms.”

by Directors:
Ginny Fromel and Rene & Mike Hermann

We hope you are all preparing to come “Dancing Through the Cherry Blossoms” with us!

As we finish final preparations, we find that WASCA IS GETTING BACK ON TRACK! We are looking forward to a fantastic festival this year. We attended “17” really great theme dances for the festival. We have 25 clubs participating in the “100% Booster Club. We have 11 clubs signed up to bring their banners to display. If you want to display your banner, please contact Jan & Alex Dommerich at 301-371-5610 and let them know that you will be bringing your banner to the festival. We are still selling multifunctional pens, cherry blossom coasters, fancy potholders, and the last three of our shirts. During each theme dance, we tried to get more people to sign-up on the Volunteer list, but there are still a lot of spaces available--so sign up and help fill in throughout the weekend. We currently know of at least 13 clubs or individuals that will be bringing in a basket for the Raffle to support the 62nd Festival! If you are interested in participating, please contact Bobbi Fuhr at 301-926-3955.

We are really excited about our callers and cuers for the festival, which you will really enjoy dancing to. The callers include Jeremy Butler, Bill Harrison, Eric Henerlau, Tom Miller, Joe Saltel, Mike Seastrom, Mike Sikorsky, and Buddy Weaver. Our cuers will be Sherry & Rey Garza, Randy Lewis & Debbie Olsen, Marie & Randy Preskitt, and Tammy & Curt Worlock. There will also be some Line Dancing prompted by Donna & Doug Riley—check the schedule and try to make one of the classes.

We will have a new program for computer squares in our DBD, Advanced and Challenge Halls, and there will be specific locations in the Main Stream and Plus Halls for those Solos that want to connect with a partner. Our Challenge dancers will be moving back downstairs and dancing in the Aspen Room. We have contracted with two vendors for the festival, and you might want to check out some of the fancy jewelry to go with your favorite outfits. The Basket Raffle will be in full swing all weekend, and we will be drawing the winners early on Saturday evening.

Starting with our Opening Ceremonies on Thursday night, we will present our annual Awards, and introduce all the Callers, Cuers, Prompters, and the WASCA Board. We are really excited about the Japanese dancers that will be putting on a really special performance as a reminder of how the D.C. “Cherry Blossoms” got here. This will be followed by a night of great dancing with a Round Dance showcase of teaches (8-9 p.m. in the Terrace Ballroom). We will be selling 50/50 tickets, Basket raffle tickets, beautiful potholders, and cherry blossom items all night. The Solo Program will have their evening dance in Plaza A at 11:00 p.m. followed by an Ice Cream Social.

Our Friday schedule is packed with a lot of dancing, classes and workshops, so please come prepared to dance. This year’s Sewing Seminar will be a delight for everyone, so please be in the Walnut room upstairs from 1:00-2:30 p.m. on Friday, and Ann Wass will show you how to combine a variety of trims to embellish a basic square dance skirt or dress and door prizes are included for this event. We would really like to see everyone in Plaza B & C at 7:30 p.m. for the Introductions of the 62nd Festival Committee followed by more fantastic dancing. We got quite a few positive comments for the 2022 Friday Night Dance, so GrooveQuest is coming back for another fantastic Sock Hop. The Band and our line dance prompters are working together in preparation of the Band's 50/60's dance music.

The Saturday schedule will be filled with more dancing, which includes the Square and Round Dance Invationals from noon – 2 p.m. in the Plaza Ballroom and the Terrace Ballroom. We really hope you will turn in your festival survey form before you leave the festival, but you can also mail it in. You will find one form in your packet, and there will be extras in the registration room for any couples that want to individually fill out their own.

Registration is still open, or you can register at the door.

However: Reminder! Housing is closed! The deadline to sign up for housing and receive the festival rate was February 4th.

For cancellations before March 12, 2023, please contact Joe or Stephanie at (301) 262- 3002 or email FestivalHousing@wascaclubs.com. On or after March 12, 2023, you should contact the Hilton directly, at least 72 hours prior to your arrival date to avoid cancellation penalties. Housing deposits are refunded by the hotel and there is a penalty for early checkout.

We look forward to dancing with as many of you as possible at the festival.

Japanese Traditional Dress

Whether you're dressing authentically to view the cherry blossoms, or to dance at the WASCA festival, you may enjoy incorporating some elements of the Japanese national costume. Japan's traditional dress is designed to emphasize the qualities of chastity and virtue; there are distinct and specific clothes for men and women, for formal or casual wear, and for various occasions and seasons.

The word 'kimono' originally means 'something to wear', rather than the robe worn today. Women's 'kimono' tends to be bright and colorful, and there are three common kimono types:

- Furisode: formal, long-sleeved kimono for young, single women; silk, with bright, colorful designs.*
- Hōmongi: semi-formal for both single and married women.*
- Komon: casual for ladies, with a finely detailed repeated pattern.*

Men's 'kimono' tends to be darker, less colorful and have less variety. Formal occasions require a hakama skirt and haori jacket; dress without a hakama, or kinagashi, is casual. In addition, the material determines the level of formality: fine silk for formal occasions, and lower-grade silk pongee for less formal occasions.

Besides the basic garments listed above, there are accessories for both sexes:

- An obi is the wide sash worn at the waist, wider and more elaborate for women, narrower and simpler for men.*
- The nagajuban is a long undergarment for both genders, worn under the kimono. Because the edges are visible along the collar and sleeves of the outer garment, they are more brightly decorated.*
- Kanzashi are ornate hairpins used in women's traditional hairstyles.*
- Hakama are long, pleated skirts over a woman's or man's kimono. Men wear hakama for formal events; women wear them for events like martial arts or graduation ceremonies.*
- The haori is the jacket worn over kimono by men and women.*
- Zōri are flat sandals with thongs; made from leather, cloth, or vinyl; always worn with tabi socks.*

- Tabis are split-toed socks worn with zōri sandals.
- Geta are the thick soled, wooden sandals, worn with or without tabi socks.

Alternative 'kimono', especially for casual summer wear are:

- A yukata: a lightweight, casual kimono for both sexes, made of cotton; often worn as lounge-wear, for a summer festival or fireworks display. A yukata is often provided for guests by hotels, similar to bathrobes in US hotels.

- The jinbei are the most casual and comfortable garment, similar to Western pajamas. They are cotton or linen top and shorts, worn around the house.

Below is a real life and illustration of traditional Japanese 'kimono'.

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO EVERYONE. I hope your holidays have been filled with lots of food, family and fun. I'm starting this article in early November so I can't comment on the 'cold' weather or the 'snow'.

We just recently had our theme dance (Nov 4th) and I can't even believe how much fun we had. We are way down in Southern Maryland, an hour's drive south of the beltway. That's probably the reason we don't get much company, although I invite people all the time. But this Friday night the WASCA board made their way down to "beautiful southern Maryland" (as I call it). And what a time we had. Between the class, the angels and our WASCA guests, we had 6 squares on the floor. What a site!! And that brings me to the real topic of my article.

First, thank you to all the delegation that made their way to our shores. It's a long way down and a long way home for all of you. But that didn't stop you (thank goodness).

As the volunteer coordinator, I wanted to attend as many theme dances as possible. So I googled each club and how far they were from my home, how many miles and the time it would take to get to them. WOW!! It immediately gave me a newer appreciation for the delegation that makes their way down to our club every year. But not just our club. They will attend theme dances for at least 15 clubs (as of this writing). Fifteen nights on the road, getting home late. That's a LOT of road time. But, what else do they do?? Let's see. There are meetings, lots of meetings. With the hotel, the callers, the cuers, the hotel staff, hotel management, hotel food service, floor people, and probably lots more we don't even know about. Not counting the meetings with each other, to coordinate everything. How many callers/cuers in how many halls to how many levels of dancing? So a thousand people can have a great time and dance for three days. So we can check-in, get our packets, get our hotel room, dance, say hello to old friends, meet new friends, eat delicious food, not to mention the ice cream, and just have a great time. AND, this is all volunteer hours. How many hours I wonder, over a year's time?

So maybe sitting for a few hours over the weekend doesn't sound so bad, does it? I always say, make your rest time, your volunteer time. Sign up for hours with your best friend. Sign up for the hours your better half is napping. Sign up for the busiest time, sign up for the slowest time. JUST SIGN UP. This festival cannot, would not happen without the many helping hands. Please lend a hand. After all, you can't dance every hour from 9a.m. to midnight (or later). Although some of the youngsters we have in our class this year probably could.

If your club can't have a theme dance, call one of the board members and see what hours are available. Sign up for an hour or two to sit and help wherever they need you. And take a minute to thank the people who made all this possible.

I will be getting the sign up board back in January so I will know what hours are still available. Give me a call and I will sign you up. Then remember to look in your registration packet for your reminder.

Computer Squares for WASCA's DBD - Adv - Challenge Halls

Charles E. Campbell

A new computer program, "Swirls", will be used in the upcoming Wasca dance this March. There are two big changes that dancers will notice with Swirls vs the previous computer squares program we used: Swirls greatly reduces the need for computer operators, and it supports singles as well as couples. Previously, as you probably recall, everyone wrote their number down on a sheet of paper signalling their intention to leave or stay, and one or more computer operators laboriously entered that information into the computer squares program.

With Swirls, you'll be getting a card (RFID tag) which resembles a gray credit card. At the computer station, there'll be a special "card reader" that you simply wave the card over (within about two inches). Doing that will tell the computer to put you into the dance (if you're not in it yet) or to take you out of the dance (if you had been in it). After you've swiped yourself out just put the card atop the appropriate stack. The reader will beep when it reads your card; you'll be able to check the results (in or out) on the computer screen when its showing names with blue and white stripes. The couples and singles shown in the graphic below are all present in the dance.

Who's Present Display

And now for the second “big change”: Swirls supports singles as well as couples! If you’re in a couple, just take one “couples” card which will have a green sticker with a couple id on it. There’ll be a stack of them atop a piece of paper that says “couples”; then swipe it atop the reader and Swirls will handle both of you with just the one card. Keep it until you decide to leave the dance; swipe it again to take yourselves out of the dance and leave the card on the “couples” stack.

For singles: there are five selections you may make as shown in Table 1.

Dancing Style	Sticker Color	Meaning
M	blue	for those who dance the male part (only)
F	red	for those who dance the female part (only)
E	yellow	for those who dance either male or female (and don’t have a preference)
MF	yellow	for those who prefer to dance the male part but are able to dance the female part
FM	yellow	for those who prefer to dance the female part but are able to dance the male part

Table 1: Singles Selection Options

Pick the card that best suits your dancing style, and, like the couples, swipe it over the reader to enter yourself into the next dance. At the present time I do not plan on making MF or FM cards, but in just a minute I’ll tell you how to change your card into one of those on your own.

I know that some of you may have encountered a recently released program which supports singles that isn’t Swirls, but unlike that one, Swirls endeavours to always give singles an equitable amount of time vis-a-vis couples. Really, with Swirls there’s no need for singles to “couple up” first! Swirls will match singles up with other dancing-compatible singles for each tip. In fact, I’m strongly encouraging singles not to couple up first.

When it becomes necessary, Swirls may match a single up with someone named “(ask)”. That means, ask of those who are sitting out the current tip if one of them would care to join in as your partner for that tip. Raise your hand. Couples: please keep an eye out for that single who needs a partner. The more that singles tell Swirls that they can dance MF, FM, or E, the less often (ask) will happen.

OK, now for how to change your dancing style to MF or FM (and other changes). There will be “special” cards with two yellow stickers on them; the yellow stickers will have words instead of numbers, too. These special cards are command cards and are shown in Table 2 (on the next page)

Swirls assumes that those who can dance C1 can also dance A2 and DBD. Swirls also assumes that those who can dance A2 can also dance DBD.

If you are in a couple, but your partner leaves and you would like to continue to dance, it’s easy: simply swipe your couples card to “out” and pick up an appropriate singles card. Likewise, if a pair of singles wishes to become a couple, swipe your singles cards to “out” and pick up a couples card. Then, just swipe yourself into the dance.

For the curious: how does Swirls roll up squares? Imagine decks of cards, each card having a single person’s number on it, and each deck’s dancers having the same number of dances. Start with the deck whose dancers have the fewest dances; shuffle it. Then pick the top card and assign the associated dancer to a square. If the dancer has a permanent partner (ie. a couple) that partner is also assigned to the square. If the dancer does not have a permanent partner (ie. a single), look for a compatible single dancer (dancing style wise) and assign him/her to that square. Repeat for each deck until the squares are filled.

Now, let's look at a typical rollup of squares; see the image entitled "Typical Swirls Squares Rollup". The couples are fairly obvious with names such as "Couple#014: 7". Singles are being matched up by Swirls and so have "names" such as "Sngl#028+039: 6". For those who study the graphic carefully you'll note that there's another entry "Sngl#039+028: 6". Don't worry, the right number of dancers have been assigned to their squares. Its just that singles don't know who their partner is and so displaying them both ways makes it easier for singles to find their assignment on the sorted display. Couple #014 has been assigned to square #7 and the two singles (#029 and #039) have been assigned to square #6.

The callers also will have rfid readers and will be switching the display from Present (blue and white) to Rollup (green and white) and back.

Finally, because there will be no operators, please don't forget to "swipe" yourselves out when

DON'T MISS OUR

OPENING CEREMONIES

If you've read the last edition of the E-Squares magazine, you already have a good idea of the opening and closing ceremonies as well as the Parade of States. And if you remember the last Winter Olympics, you have a vision of what an opening ceremony looks like... Laser snowflakes, holographic skaters, awe inspiring fireworks. If you combine all of this you get a confused mess in your head. Our opening ceremony will have none of this but will be much more constrained and fun for the whole family. Think more along the lines of the Super Bowl advertisements where old products are presented in charming new "packaging". Rather than the "end of season" game, the NSDC is the high point of a year gone and a year to come. Our opening will include some introductions of "Mobile people" who have been instrumental in organizing the soiree. We're gonna show the Olympic committee what a "torch relay" really looks like. And we're going to raise a "Moon-Pie over Mobile". There may be more fun things happening so don't miss a minute.

58th
Star Spangled Banner Festival
Movie Magic

July 13 - 15, 2023
Delta Hunt Valley Inn in Hunt Valley, MD.

Welcome to March Everyone!

In a short time the talk around the square and round dance community will be about the great time everyone had at the 62nd Dancing through the Cherry Blossom WASCA Festival. And lots will start looking for another great dance festival in the area.

Well, we have got the dance weekend for you...

The Star Spangled Banner Festival will be held July 13 - 15, 2023 at the Delta Hunt Valley Inn in Hunt Valley, MD. This year the 58th Festival will host the theme Movie Magic as we dance away the weekend with friends both old and new. The calling staff for the weekend includes Bill Harrison, Tom Miller, Ken Ritucci and Mike Seastrom, along with some area callers to fill your dancing hours. Our cueing staff is also top notch with Barbara & Wayne Blackford, Curt & Tammy Worlock, and Tom Denniston and Ellen McCabe.

In addition to our regular hours of workshops and intros, our dance hours will include our Aqua Squares of dancing in the swimming pool. And we will have our Hexagon Square time too. Thursday night after hours will be our Solo Dance followed by treat time.

When you want a dance break, you can visit the Second Hand Rose room - in search of a new outfit or two. And be sure to get your 50/50 tickets for multiple drawings throughout the weekend. And get your tickets for our raffle to support Johns Hopkins Children's Oncology with winners of $300, $200, $100 drawn Saturday evening. And don't forget the ice cream...

We've got a big weekend planned - so get yourself and your friends registered now and get your dancing shoes ready!

Check out our flyer for more details. Housing Reservations can be made directly with the hotel. From our website under The Star Spangled Festival select the Dancing & Housing info. 74th NSDC - Shreveport 2025

The 74th National Square Dance Convention® will be held in Shreveport, Louisiana June 26 - 29, 2024
257 dancers have registered as of January 2023.
For more information go to <https://74thnsdc.com/>

It's hard to believe 2023 is off and running and so is the team for the 74th NSDC in Shreveport.

Tonia & I want to make sure we have recommendations where to eat when you get to Shreveport and we are recommending Fertitta's, oh my goodness! The "Muffy" is great, we're talking about a simple place with red & white checkered table cloths located just on the outskirts of downtown Shreveport. The building is registered on the national register of historic places and even the name of the street was transformed from Christian Street to Sam R. Fertitta Drive to recognize one of the city's oldest surviving establishments, Fertitta's Delicatessen. "We are the oldest in Shreveport and the state of Louisiana -- the same family that owns it," said owner Agatha Fertitta-McCall. "There are older restaurants, but we are the same continually owned family that's been here since 1927." Fertitta-McCall's grandparents, John and Mary Fulco, constructed and opened the grocer in 1927. You got to put this on your list to visit!

Ralph & Kacoo's is currently ranked as one of the top 100 restaurants in America and another favorite of ours.

If you are looking for great seafood and a great atmosphere with fare pricing you will definitely want to take the short drive (less than 10 minutes) to Ralph and Kacoo's just over the river in Bossier City.

Tonia & I are long time campers & backpackers and this week I am proud to announce we have signed agreements for our campers. The Fair Grounds are less than 10 minutes from the Shreveport Convention Center & we could actually accommodate up to 483 campers. We have also rented a hospitality building for Thursday – Saturday for a place to visit & will accommodate about 10 squares if we would like to dance on site.

Betty Bender Clucas

February 25, 1929 - January 1, 2022.

Betty Bender Clucas passed away peacefully on January 1, 2022. Her family was by her side. Born in Glen Echo Heights on February 25, 1929, Betty was the youngest daughter of John Louis Bender and Florence Dresser Bender. She had two older brothers, Louis and Walter and an older sister, Thirza. Betty attended The Takoma Park Seventh Day Adventist Elementary School and Burdick Vocational High School. After high school, she worked for various organizations as a secretary; ultimately working a total of 41 years for Dr. Paul Hoffman, Sr. and his son Dr. Paul Hoffman, Jr. prominent orthodontists in Bethesda, MD.

In 1949 she married John I. Clucas whom she met at the Riverside Roller Skating Rink. (Now home to the Kennedy Center). They adopted two daughters, Julie in 1957 and Laurie in 1959, and in 1961 their daughter Shelley was born.

Betty was an athlete and adventure seeker her entire life. Her love of roller skating was lifelong, earning her a Proficiency Gold Medal for dance skating. After Congressional Roller Skating Rink in Rockville closed, she turned her attention to square and round dancing and danced several times a week with the Gerrymanders, Villiage Swingers, and Saturday in Style (among others) until she was 86 years old. One of her favorite call executions was to pull her partner through the center of the square during "... promenade half way"

Being a thrill seeker, she finally got her wish and skydived at age 83. MedStar Montgomery hospital featured Betty skydiving on the cover of their Fall 2012 magazine. (See picture below) Betty also was an accomplished seamstress; She made many of her own skating costumes and dresses for square and round dancing and then princess dresses for her granddaughters.

Betty was preceded in death by her husband, John I. Clucas and her three siblings, Walter, Louis and Thirza Miller. She is survived by her daughters Julie (Raca Gusic), Laurie Souder, Shelley (Ralph Ours) and her grandchildren Bryce, (Danielle Beckmann), Amber (Anthony Brown), Olivia and Helena Crist, great grandchildren Blake and Brooks Beckmann and many extended family members.

Betty's ashes will be interred with her husband and brother at Rockville Cemetery. An outdoor memorial celebration will be held at a later date for friends and family.

In lieu of flowers, a donation to Saint Jude's Children's Hospital would be appreciated.

Robert Allen “Bob” Worley

May 29, 1933 – February 26, 2023.

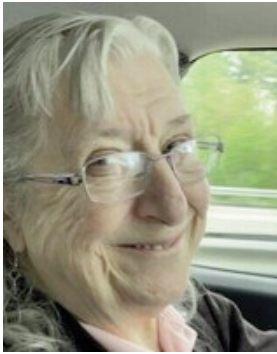

On February 26, 2023, Robert Allen Worley, fondly known as “Bob,” changed his address from Virginia Beach to heaven where he was met by his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and his beautiful sweetheart, Dora, who predeceased him in 2018.

Bob was born in Towns County, GA, and grew up on Gumlog Mountain. Deciding at an early age that farming wasn’t for him, he joined the US Navy where he rose from the rank of Seaman Apprentice to Lieutenant. Highlights include serving during the Korean and Vietnam Wars, being stationed at Guantanamo Base, Cuba, where he met the love of his life, and three years as captain of the U.S.S. Junaluska, the only Navy tugboat in Bermuda, which he considered his “tour in paradise.” Following a highly decorated career, he retired as CWO-4 (Chief Warrant Officer) after 30 years of service.

After God, family, and country, Bob loved his second career as a renowned square dance caller. Known as being the “Best Dressed Caller” in square dancing, Bob began calling while stationed in Bermuda in 1965. He took the stage at square dance clubs nationwide from Virginia Beach to California, Alaska, and even the Philippines. He loved challenging his dancers with unique choreography while crooning along to his favorite country tunes. Bob established Crown Records, recording square dance music that has been distributed worldwide, including Japan, Australia, Germany, Sweden, the Netherlands, and many others. He was president of HRCA—the Hampton Roads Callers Association; the co-founder and chairman of VASCA, the Virginia State Callers Association; and a member of CALLERLAB, the national square dance callers association, and was awarded status of “Legend.” Over the years, Bob served as caller for several local square clubs, including “The Thumpers” for over three decades.

He will be greatly missed by his surviving family: daughter, Evelyn Wagoner (Rod); son, Matthew “Matt”; grandson, Jeremy Butler (fiancée Jamie Brandenburg); niece, Betty Clark; “adopted” daughter, Sue Holmes (Clel); sisters Zel Warner, Ruth Worley, and Tina Hooper, and brother Arlin (Marie) Worley, along with numerous nieces and nephews.

Frances “Fran” Hunt

February 23, 1943 - January 8th, 2023

Frances “Fran” (Hartmann) Hunt died unexpectedly at the age of 79 at her home on Sunday, January 8th, 2023. Fran was born on February 23, 1943, in New York City, NY to Walter Hartmann, and Feodora (Wittner) Hartmann.

She attended and graduated from Newbury School. She worked for many years and retired from Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center. She was an avid square dancer and traveled all around the country and beyond to attend square dances. She met and made many great friends square dancing.

She is survived by a daughter, Joyce Fifield and husband Ed Fifield of Newbury; a son Alfred Sidney and wife Sherry of Newbury; and a daughter, Cathleen Thompson and partner Don Bazzell of Newbury. She is survived by her son’s children, Scott Sidney and Melanie Sidney; her daughter’s children, Morgan Driscoll and Madison Driscoll; and three step grandsons, Michael Fifield, Jeremy Fifield, and David Fifield; and many nieces and nephews.

She was pre-deceased by her mother in 1981, and her father in 1992. She was also pre-deceased by a son, Martin “Walt” Sidney in 2000.

There will be no calling hours and a celebration of life will be determined by the family at a later date.

Life isn't about waiting out the storm. It's about learning how to dance in the rain.

CHOREO CORNER

“Anything and Roll”

with Dick Otis

We are on the count-down to the 2023 WASCA Festival. With almost 700 dancers signed up, we may not be quite as large as previous years, but we will have a good time anyway.

WASCA of course features Callerlab Programs from Mainstream through C1. The biggest halls are the Round Dance Hall, the Plus Hall and the Dancing By Definition (DBD) Hall.

This year the DBD through C1 halls will be using a new program called Swirls created by Chip Campbell. It's a pretty awesome program. Everyone will receive a digital card for checking into and out of each hall. The cards are unique for each hall, so please don't take them with you when you leave. The program also manages solo dancers extremely well. As with all new things, there will be a learning curve. But Chip has visited many clubs this year to give dancers practice on his new program. He promises us Mac users a copy eventually, I can hardly wait.

Now that everyone is dancing again, it's pretty obvious that for some dancers the level of proficiency has declined somewhat. Like all things to be proficient at anything requires regular practice. If that describes you, I encourage you to attend any refresher dances or even repeat one of the classes that are available in the area.

For this article, I am reviewing the call “Anything and Roll”. The concept of Roll is simple but the execution can be difficult. You will likely encounter this call frequently in the DBD hall so this is a good example of where both understanding and practice are critical.

First the definition:

The term "... & Roll" may be added to any call which, by definition, causes one or more dancers to have turning body flow to the right or left as they complete their portion of the call. It is an instruction to those dancer(s) to turn individually, in place, one quarter (90 degrees) more in the direction of body flow determined by the preceding command. Note that if "... and Roll" is added to a call which by its definition, has some dancers walking in a straight line at the completion of their portion of the call, those dancers will do nothing for the "... and Roll"

The call is named “Anything and Roll” because there must be a preceding call to develop the angular rotation necessary to do the Roll part of the call. This can cause a problem because the caller must specify the Roll during the preceding call. If the caller waits until the 1st part of the call is completed before saying “and Roll” the dancers will likely forget which way they were turning.

But this can create a “Catch 22” because dancers sometime want to Roll immediately rather than waiting until the first call is completed.

Another problem is that for some calls not all the dancers have angular rotation but they may try to Roll anyway because they heard “roll”. An example of this is Ping Pong Circulate where the dancers trading on the outside have angular rotation as they trade but the dancers extending into the center wave do not have an angular rotation (they are walking straight forward).

Callerlab lists the standard application for this (and other) calls: e.g. the formations and arrangements where a caller may reasonably expect close to 100% dancer success.

If the (Anything) and Roll call leaves active pairs facing after turning in opposite directions then success is nearly guaranteed. Also saying Roll to Face helps.

Examples: Star Thru and Roll, Slide Thru and Roll, California Twirl and Roll, Partner Trade and Roll.

Confusion regarding which wall to face is likely when the anything call involves 1/4 or 1/2 turns with both dancers moving in the same direction.

Examples: Touch 1/4 and Roll, Single Hinge and Roll, and (from a mini-wave) Trade and Roll

It's important to know the definition of a call to know if you can roll at the end of the call. Some calls are deceptive. The best example is the Basic call "Pass the Ocean". You cannot roll at the end of this call because the definition is: Pass Thru; Face your Partner; Step to A Wave. Since the last part of the call is step to a wave, there is no angular motion so you cannot roll.

Unfortunately, if you read the styling notes (or read Terminations) you will see: "The 3-part definition is smoothed out. The left-side dancers walk in a forward arc to the right to their ending position. The right-side dancers walk forward to join left hands (hands up styling) and turn 1/4 with each other. The styling implies that you can roll at the end of the call, but you cannot.

One call that I see dancer have problems with is Wheel & Deal & Roll. From normal couple, Outfacing lines this call changes the formation from lines to a Left-Hand Wave with same sexes together. This is just hard, because you (a) have to figure out which way to roll and (b) end up in a non-standard formation. The only way to be successful at this is practice. You are not likely to see this at a normal Plus Dance unless you ask the caller for it. You WILL see this in the DBD and Advance halls.

Like all learning this is a multi-step process. First you need to understand what's happening. secondly you need to experience the physical motion and lastly, you need to do it often enough to develop muscle memory.

So in summary, the call "Anything and Roll" can be easy, or hard, depending on the choreography of the call sequence.

I wish for everyone to have a great time at WASCA and look forward to seeing you on the dance floor!

Forty-four clubs were represented at the February 26, 2023 WASCA Delegates virtual meeting. Currently there are fifty-one clubs that are members of WASCA. We have had two clubs cease. The Boomerangs Square Dance Teaching Council folded and distributed their remaining funds to four clubs, VASARDA and WASCA.

The Good Luck Squares held their final dance as a WASCA theme dance on January 19, 2023. Jim and Ann Wass had club memorabilia and several dancers attended.

The Delegates elected the new members of the WASCA Board. The Executive Committee for one year beginning June 2023 will be President: Bob Lawn and Martha Thompson; Vice President: Steve Cunnion; Secretary: Jan Frick; and Treasurers: Linda and Steve Toth. For a three year term the new Special Events Maryland will be Mike and Carol McNamee and Special Events Virginia will be Fran Hernandez. These newly elected officers will take office as of June 1, 2023.

As noted above, the WASCA year starts June 1, 2023. Remember that club dues are payable before June 1, 2023. Please update your club membership application / renewal" form which can be found on the next page or under forms on wascaclubs.org.

Did you know that you can print your own 2023 WASCA Festival schedule by going to www.wascaclubs.org and clicking on Spring Festival? Please check out all the information that is available in the Program Book. You might want to print a schedule so you can plan your dance weekend and not miss any of the great callers and cuers.

There's also a tab called Callers and Cuers on the web site that includes all of the staffs' pictures. There is also a lot of information for the weekend.

If your President/Manager, Delegate, Alternate Delegate, or Club Info Contact changes or has a change in email, address, etc. during the year, please send us the new name with the address, phone number and email address. We need the correct information so that we can send the WASCA Secretary the up to date information that she needs to email or mail the Delegate's minutes for the next meeting, as well as having the correct email forwarding addresses. If you need further information or have a question about or correction for the Calls 'n' Cues Centerfold or WASCAclubs web site, please email us at membership@wascaclubs.com or call 703-573-8378.

AQUA SQUARES

Paula Ropshaw

Hello fellow squared dancers, from beautiful southern Maryland. Our class is going great guns. They are enjoying themselves (which is the whole reason they are there) and our club is enjoying dancing with them. Our class starts at 7pm til about 8:15 and our plus dancing goes from 8:30 to 9:45. We dance to the amazing calling of Bill Harrison and Gary Felton. Our new president, Keenan has taken over the leadership of the club, after a long 4 years of jokes from former president Jim Cooney. But we loved his jokes (most of them). And we appreciate that Jim stuck with us through the pandemic and the zoom dances. But we seem to be back in the swing of things and glad to be. You are always invited to our dances. We love company and we love to have fun. Feel free to stop by any time and experience our southern Maryland hospitality.

BELAIR SQUARE CATS

Mike Herman

The Belair Square Cats started February with a successful Barbed Wire & Roses Dance which invited our students to join the club for dancing for one evening. This night also included a successful Second Hand Rose event. We were joined by some future round dancers who are currently in lessons. This night was followed by our Tropical Island Dance.

But now after a wonderfully mild winter when we haven't missed a dance due to weather we are coming into March like lions not kittens to celebrate St. Patrick's Day early with the "Wearin' O' the Green". So join us on March 11 wearing your green. Dayle Hodge will call and Barbara Buchanan will cue. The following week will be the WASCA where we hope to see everyone. Then without missing a beat We hope to see everyone right back here at the Belair Square Cats on March 25 "La Fiesta Grande" with Doren McBroom calling and Peg Kincaid cueing.

On April 9 The Easter Bunny steals the show and the Light. Square Cats will be DARK. But have no fear! We will return to celebrate the 59th Anniversary of the Belair Square Cats with Dayle Hodge calling and Amy Shotting, cueing. So don't stray too far from us. We have much more dancing to do these next few months.

We will be right here at St. Matthew's United Methodist Church, 14900 Annapolis Road, Bowie, MD 20715. That's on Route 450, next to Bowie High School.

BIZZY BEES

The Hive has been busy with dancing. We even had our own Groundhogs and their Shadow at our Groundhog Dance! Our snow dance was snowless-but still fun. The Sweetheart Dance fell on Valentine's Day, so everyone went dancing on the big day! We have Mardi Gras, Hawaiian Luau and the Easter Bunny coming up. Chris Stacy has been keeping us on our toes with great calling. We love having guests-square dance attire is not re-

FREDERICK COUNTY PROMENADERS

Jan and Alex Dommerich

Please join the Promenaders for their March and April dances. The Promenaders are now dancing one Sunday afternoon (3:00-5:15) and one Friday night (7:30-9:45) each month. They will be dancing Sunday, March 5 – “Hobby Dance”; Friday, March 24 – “Crazy Hat Dance”; Sunday, April 2 – “Spring Colors” AND Second Hand Rose Sale; and Friday, April 21 “Glitz and Glam Dance”. Dances are held at the Mt. Pleasant Ruritan Club, 8101 Crum Road, Walkersville, MD.

The Promenaders had a wonderful holiday season. Virgil Forbes called the festive “Christmas Dance” on December 16 which was attended by four squares. Margie Barber, club president, provided a home-made wreath ornament for everyone. Door prizes were won by Steve Cunnion and Pat Marks. Ed Keibler won the evening’s drawing. Caroling ended the fun dance.

*Frederick County Promenaders
Christmas Dance 12/16/22*

The club members provided Christmas gifts for a needy Frederick family under the direction of Margie Barber. It was a wonderful project with many members participating.

There were Christmas sweaters galore at the class Christmas Party on Wednesday, December 21. First prize was won by Jan and Alex Dommerich who wore unique Christmas glasses. Andrea Smith, class coordinator, shared spiced nuts with everyone.

Many Promenaders welcomed 2023 by attending the Panhandlers’ New Year’s Eve Dance December 31. They included: Dan Grimes, Mike McIntyre, Rachel Zeigler, Jan & Alex Dommerich, Ray & Linda Everett, Sarah Stamper, Ed Keibler, Beverly Magyar, Jackie Armistead, Andrea Smith and Andrew Provo.

The Promenaders’ inaugural dance of 2023 was a roaring success with six squares on the floor. Most dancers wore black and white for the “Black and White Dance” called and cued by Mike McIntyre on January 8. Beverly Magyar won the evening’s drawing while Ray Everett and Geoffrey Elbo won the door prizes.

Martin Luther King memories were shared at the “Martin Luther King Dance” on January 20. Signs with Martin Luther King’s quotes were posted on the chair backs (printed by Bonnie Pollack). Margie Barber made posters with quotes which were also displayed. Debora Pinkney and Jan & Alex Dommerich brought pictures of Martin Luther King sites they visited. Door prizes were won by Jackie Armistead and Kevin Sullivan. Bonnie Rohr won the evening’s drawing. It was a great night of dancing to Mike McIntyre’s calling and cueing. Sixteen dancers gathered at I HOP after the dance - organized by Sarah Stamper.

Yoshiko Tucker won the attendance award for the Main Stream Lessons. Now the class is learning Plus under Dan Grimes’ direction.

A sea of red and white covered the dance floor for the “Valentine’s Dance” on February 4. Eight squares enjoyed dancing to Mike McIntyre’s “love” music as he called and cued. Ilene Parmeter led a line dance. Students from many different clubs attended and enjoyed the mixers and Main Stream dancing. Debora Pinkney won the afternoon’s drawing and door prizes were won by Margie Barber, Luis Barrow, Mary Ann Gearing, Julie Collins, and Debra Hengen. Luis Barros provided a cake for Suzanne Morgan’s birthday which everyone shared. Margie Barber, club president, surprised everyone with home-made heart pins. It was a memorable afternoon of dancing. Twenty-one dancers gathered at I HOP after the dance – organized by Sarah Stamper.

Pauls Lutheran Church, 24 East Baltimore St. Funkstown, Md. We are continuing to see more dancers with about 6 squares at our last dance. Our new dancers will finish plus instructions in March, and we have moved their graduation up to Thursday, March 25th. The graduation dance scheduled for Saturday, April 29th has been changed to a regular dance with Art calling and Butch cueing. Our next special caller night will be April 22, 2023 with Jeremy Butler calling and Butch cueing.

GERRYMANDERS OF MARYLAND

Ed Cragg

Bruce Simperts, one of the Gerrymanders callers suffered a fall after Christmas which required surgery. He spent January and February recovering. Jim Wass filled in for him. Bruce expects to be back 1 March.

The Gerrymanders are dancing whenever we can get enough dancers. With only 5-6 memers who dance regularly we rely on visitors to make a square. To be sure we have enough dancers we have been asking dancers to RSVP by noon on the day of the dance (Wednesday).

The Gerrymanders dance two programs. On the 1st, 3rd and 5th Wednesdays we teach and dance floor level (to include beginner) from 7:30 - 8:30. we dance full mainstream until 9:15 followed by easy plus / plus workshop for the rest of the evening. We end the evening with and a full plus tip. We accept students beginning at any time on a pay each night attended basis. When they are present, we teach new students from 7:30 to 8:30 pm. We have been finding with the students we have been having are learning very fast with this program. It fits nicely with students who are taking lessons elsewhere but would like some more practice. The more regular they can come the faster they learn. Students still can pay on the quarterly basis if they wish or they can pay as you go basis of $7 per night. Bruce Simperts and a guest caller (on 5th Wednesdays) preside.

On the 2nd and 4th Wednesday we dance a plus workshop from 7:30-8:00. Then from 8:00 until 9:30 we dance full plus. Kenny Farris is our caller. We dance at the North Chevy Chase Christian Church every Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 10:00. The cost is $7.per night. Mr. Gerrymander will be glad to answer any questions or give directions if you call him at 703-920-2624..

SEE YOU AT THE FESTIVAL

We had our final hurrah for the Good Luck Squares on Thursday, January 19th, but we all hope to see you at the WASCA Festival this month. On another page, we have included a photo collage of our Farewell, 33rd Anniversary, and Theme Dance, that shows most of the individuals that came to the dance. We have participated in many different activities over the years. We have hosted WASCA Festival theme dances every year, donated a basket every year since the basket raffle started, and we usually had quite a number of members attending the festival. We have been banner stealing whenever we could find another club that would participate. We

The Greenspring Seniors is primarily a social club which enjoys square dancing from 1:30-3 pm at various locations around Green Spring. Please see our schedule in the Organizational Schedule section of this publication. Since there is a wide range of square dance experience from brand new dancers to experience pros we alternate tips between teaching a class for brand new dancers and dancing the full mainstream program. Lake of the Woods Square Dance Club members burned off some of those holiday calories by dancing to the spirited calls of Gene Chamberlain and Charlie Shoemaker respectively on January 13th and 27th. had an annual Halloween Dance, Thanksgiving Dinner Dance, Christmas Sweet Celebration Dance, Pre-New Year's Eve Celebration Dance, and Birthday celebrations that will be missed. We have only had a few non-dancing events in the last few months knowing that this January dance would be our final farewell. Jim Wass started the Good Luck Squares and has been calling on Thursday nights for 33 years. We have had dances in several locations over the years and spent the largest amount of time at Robert Frost Elementary School in New Carrollton. Several years ago, we moved our dances to the Trinity Moravian Church in New Carrollton, MD. We tried to reach as many of our previous members as possible in hopes of getting them to come join us for the Farewell Dance.

The 2023 WASCA Festival will be our final event for the club members, and most of our members are on the festival committee or will be working as volunteers during the festival.

the mainstream calls which may have been forgotten over the holidays when no square dancing was being practiced. The students then were ready to begin plus lessons with Gene Chamberlain on January 17th. Students and angels have been meeting each Tuesday evening from 7:00 to 9:00 to add plus calls to the students' dancing skills. Students are making good progress. Some have attended dances and participated in the mainstream tips there. When Gene Chamberlain is the caller, he may also add some plus calls that the students have learned.

On February 10th Gene Chamberlain called for the Club's "Chocolate Insanity Dance". Members provided assorted chocolate desserts as well as chocolate candy. There was even some fresh fruit along with chocolate covered strawberries if anyone was concerned about adding back some of those pounds they may have lost since the holidays. Members also welcomed three WASCA Festival Directors who enjoyed the chocolate and joined in the dancing. Of course, their main purpose for being at the dance was to inform club members about the WASCA Festival that will be held at the Mark Hilton in Alexandria in March. They came equipped the WASCA theme with cherry blossoms and a picture of the United States Capitol printed on the fabric from which the skirts were made. The directors provided fliers for registration, sign up sheets for helping at the event, and offered assorted products for sale to benefit WASCA. The Lake of the Woods Club is filling a basket for the raffle at WASCA.

On February 24th as well as March 24th, the Club expects to welcome Larry Winegard as the caller for the dances. Gene Chamberlain is scheduled to keep us dancing on March 10th and 31st. In April the Club anticipates holding graduation for the students, and enjoying fellowship at the Spring Dinner Dance which will be held at the Lake of the Woods Clubhouse on April 14th.

MERRY NOTES

January saw the Herndon Senior Center full of cherry blossoms. The Merry Notes held their WASCA festival theme dance and the cherry blossom fabrics were swirling all around. RIVERMONT RAMBLERS

Fran Hernandez

The Rivermont Ramblers dance every 2nd and 4th Friday of the month at The Raymond Santmyers Youth Center, 200 E. 8th Street, Front Royal. Mike McIntyre is our club caller and cuer. PreRounds are from 7:30 PM to 8:00 PM and 2X2s from 8:00PM to 10:00PM. We alternate between Main Stream and Plus depending upon the dancers in attendance on a given club night. Our updated 2023 Dance Schedule is included with this issue of Calls'n'Cues.

Unfortunately, there wasn't enough interest in the class that we had hoped to start in September 2022; therefore, we've turned Tuesday night into a Plus danceshop! The danceshop is conducted by Mike McIntyre and is held every Tuesday 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM at The Raymond Santmyers Youth Center. It's been challenging to keep the danceshop going. We've have had to cancel quite a few times due to lack of participants. We're not giving up yet though! It's a fun Tuesday evening and a good mid-week exercise opportunity!

We're looking forward to the SHENANDOAH APPLE BLOSSOM FESTIVAL SQUARE AND ROUND DANCE which will take place on Saturday, May 6, 2023 at the Virginia Avenue Charlotte DeHart

Elementary School, 550 Virginia Avenue, Winchester, Virginia 22601. MATT Worley and Elbert Harrison will be calling and dance shop Butch Bloxom will be cuing. This dance is a yearly event which is sponsored by WASCA and hosted by the Rivermont Ramblers and the Panhandlers. Even though it's still a couple of months away, we hope you'll save the date and add it to your social calendars! A flyer is included with this issue of Calls'n' Cues. Please feel free to pass it along!

RYDER'S ROUNDERS

Ken and Bernie Ryder

We have continued in-person dancing on Monday afternoons -- 1-3PM --at the Greenspring Community in Springfield and on Thursday evenings -- 7:00-9:30PM-- at ST Barnabas Episcopal Church in Annandale. Our Ryder's Rounders at St B's enjoyed our annual Sweet-heart/Valentine and our President's Day/Mardi Gras party dances during February with special thematic dances and delicious muchies and goodies to relish. As we prepare for WASCA, we will review certain phase IV dances on the WASCA program to ensure we can get up and dance them comfortably.

Without our normal venue on Monday evenings, we have continued "virtual/distance" round dancing using JITSY web meeting technology with many of our Ryders Rounders and other dancers from outside the WASCA area, including Canada. Our "virtual" dances begin at 7:30 PM every Monday night. If you wish to join in, send Ken an e-mail at kfryder@cox.net so that he can include you on his e-mail invitation list.

In addition, on Sunday evenings we have continued holding an intermediate workshop from 5-7PM and a beginner dance class from 7-8:30PM on the beautiful wooden floor of the Richardson Room at ST Barnabas Episcopal Church. We have continued our basic Waltz class with plans to graduate on Sunday March 12. We will start a new basic two step class on Sunday, March 26 -- the Sunday after WASCA. See flyer later in this issue for more details.

We invite all round dancers to join us in-person at Greenspring or St Barnabas or virtually on Monday evenings. If you have any questions or need more information about the clubs, the workshops, or beginner dance lessons, please call Berni and Ken at 703 323-6615.

Experience the FUN, joy and camaraderie of square dancing without having to complete formal square dancing classes. The emphasis will be on "dancing" rather than "learning." A few calls will be taught and then danced in a simple pattern. New calls and choreography will be added as dancers progress.

Need a valid health-related reason to try square dancing?

Here (paraphrased in part) is what *AARP research has found.

“...you can make a difference in your brain’s health.
...MOVE (exercise), RELAX (sleep enough and avoid stress),
NOURISH (eat well), DISCOVER (think), and CONNECT

“What works best? ...DANCE... It’s FUN, it involves other people, it’s exercise, it challenges you to learn patterns and movements.”

KEYNOTE

Dance Like Nobody's Watching

JACK PLADDYS

I am extremely honored and excited to present the Keynote Address at the 72nd NSDC in Mobile. The theme is "Dance Like Nobody's Watching". The focus of my address will be to how to remanufacture the public's perception of this activity if we are to effectively recruit. It's time to get back in the public eye. Show folks we love what we're doing. Impress the non-dancers with the talent our Callers and Leaders have. Play the music loud and proud. It's time to prosper again. Time to make the public take notice of our activity again and get them in the door. Then we'll discuss how to keep 'em there. We need to sing like we don't need the money....and....DANCE LIKE NOBODY'S WATCHING!!!
